ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to honor the grace of my lord that encouraged and helped me to complete this thesis.

With immense gratitude and admiration, I acknowledge my teacher and guide Dr. Mary Venus C.J, Vice principal, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamassery for her valuable guidance, insights and supervision throughout the research programme. I acknowledge that without her consistent assistance this research would not have become a reality. Dear teacher, I thank you for the patience, tolerance and support with which you guided me throughout the study.

My research period in Rajagiri was unforgettable and inspiring. I would like to thank each and everyone in Rajagiri college of social sciences for consider me a member of their family and for providing me freedom to utilize the services and resources of the institution. I am greatly thankful to Rev. Fr. Jose Alex, and the present Principal Dr. Joseph Injody, my teacher for their concern and encouragement with supporting hands.

I would also like to thank Fr. Prasanth, Sr. Pushpa, Maria, Nycil, Tessa, Fr. Wilson, Sheena, Kunjunmon, Sherly, Office, lab and library staff and all others for the encouragement and help they rendered. The timely corrections and suggestions of the co-research scholars especially Sr. Soona, Fr. Norby, Sreedhanya and Mrs. Giji also is remembered with gratitude.

I would also like to thank Dr. Sr. Renjana, the previous Principal of St. Joseph’s college and all faculty members of Social Work Department who had encouraged me in this venture.

I would like to thank Faculty members of Psychiatric Social Work Department and library staff of NIMHANS, for rendering me the needed facilities as and when I needed them during the years of my research. The valuable assistance provided by staff, Kerala University, Centre for Development Studies, Child Development Centre, Thiruvanthapuram, Avinashilingam Institute of Home Sciences, Coimbatore, St. Theresas College, Ernakulam are also admitted thankfully.

I am highly indebted to the President and Secretary of selected Residents Associations in Thiruvananthapuram, Cochin and Kozhikode Corporations and staff of these corporation offices for their benevolence and for providing me with the data required for this research. I thank all families and friends who provided me necessary accommodation facilities at the time of my literature review and data collection.

I would like to place on record my gratitude to Dr. Kannan for his valuable suggestions. It would not have been possible for me to conduct and analyze my study without Dr. Sunanda’s guidance and useful suggestions on statistical applications. For that, I thank you.

A special note of thanks to my dear friends Hemanjali, Sulu, Vidya and Gayathri for all they have done from the beginning till the end with unending support, perseverance and affection. A special note of thanks to Ms. Asha P Rao for her reassurances and best wishes. Dear Deepa, I thank you for your patience in educating me about all the necessary corrections over the course of my study. Your willingness to help is definitely an asset to me.

I thank God for blessing me with a loving and supportive family. I thank my parents who take care of my son and encouraged me to complete the thesis. I thank my husband for his consistent support and unlimited patience throughout the highs and lows of my doctoral study. Without his unconditional love and encouragement I would not have been able to successfully complete my thesis. Thank you Manoj for being my partner in life and my best friend. My dear sister Jeena’s confidence in me and my brother’s and brother in law’s help inspired as well as encouraged me. A special note of thanks to my son Gary who is in the rearing period for giving so much co-operation to complete the thesis.

My cousins Mini Chechi and Lini and my friend Elsa came in at the right moment, tirelessly and patiently scanning the thesis for errors in grammar, sentence construction and logical reasoning. I would also like to thank all my cousins and teachers who showered me with blessings and prayers.

Last but not least, a very special note of thanks to all my respondents, the parents, for their co-operation which had been most important in the completion of the study.

Once again I would like to thank God almighty for the blessings showered on me and I completely surrender my self to thy hands.

Place:

Date:

Jilly John