ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A number of persons have helped me in various ways in this laborious task of the research project. I would be failing in my duty if I do not thank them all.

In the first place, I would like to thank 140 officers of 21 public sector banks and 7 leading private sector banks who spared their valuable time to complete the questionnaire and also for furnishing relevant information. I am also thankful to those officers who provided an opportunity to have personal interviews and for their valuable suggestions.

I must also thank all those who extended their full cooperation in this research project, particularly, Mr. Maurice D’Souza, Chairman, The South Indian Bank; Mr. K. Shantaram Kudva, Deputy General Manager, Syndicate Bank Bombay; Mr. Allen C.A. Pereira, Assistant General Manager, Syndicate Bank, New Delhi; Mr. R.H. Kittur, Principal, Syndicate Bank, Staff Training College, Bombay; Mr. I.B.M.K. Gandhi, Principal, Staff Training College, Syndicate Bank, Lucknow; Mr. M. Jai Prakash, Principal Syndicate Bank, Staff Training College, Baroda; Mr. K. Sitaraman, Chief Manager, Karur Vysya Bank, Madras; Mr. C.A. Chacko, Manager, Syndicate Bank, Eranakulam; Mr. K. Radhakrishna Rao, Principal, Syndicate Bank, Staff Training College, Eranakulam; Mr. B. Raja Narasaiya, Principal, Syndicate Bank, Staff Training College, Calcutta.
I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my guide, Dr. T.N. Sreedhara, Reader, Department of Business Administration, Mangalore University for his guidance, encouragement and support from the beginning till the end without which it would not have been possible to complete this work. He had been a real friend, philosopher and guide to me. I am extremely thankful to him.

My sincere thanks are due to Mr. Louis Raj, Manager, Syndicate Bank, Head Office, Manipal; Mr. Walter D'Souza and Theresa Barnes of St. Mary's English Medium School, Udupi; Mr. Reo Joseph D'Sa; and Mr. Badarees for their computer assistance. A special word of thanks to Mrs. Violet Quadros, My wife, for the all the support and cooperation extended to me throughout this laborious research project.
