should be a judicious policy of making institutions like the Life Insurance Company and the Unit Trust of India take upon themselves the responsibility of distributing pensions.
The interest payment obligation should be gradually reduced to achieve a reduction in interest payments.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Books

Adam Smith, An Enquiry into wealth of Nations, Himalaya Publishing House, Mumbai, 1776.

Alan, T. Peacock and Jack Wiseman, *The Growth of Public Expenditure in the

Bhargava, P.K., Essay on Indian Public Finance, Chuch Publication, Allahabad, 1982.

Journals

Reports and Papers

Government of India, Budget at a Glance, 2002-03.

Hand book of Industrial Organization –II.

Reserve Bank of India Bullets, May 2003.

The Hindu, (business line), Defence gets Rs. 25,000 crores non-lapsable

The Hindu, “Health is an inalienable human right every individual can justly claim”, October 5, 2005.

The Hindu, Business Review, dated, March 8, 2000, p.4