Acknowledgements

I am greatly indebted to the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar of Alagappa University, Karaikudi, for granting me permission to registrar for Ph.D degree as the full time scholar.

It is a great privilege to record my deep sense of gratitude and thankfulness to Dr. S. Subbiah, my Research Guide, Professor & Head, Department of English and Foreign Languages, Alagappa University, Karaikudi whose critical appraisals, apt guidance, factual input, constant encouragement and continuous support enriched my work. His wide knowledge and his logical way of thinking have been of great value for me. I wish to express my warm and sincere thanks to him for introducing me to the field of English Language Teaching.

I am grateful to Dr. M. Solayan, Principal, Venkateshwara College of Education, and Peravurani to giving shape to my research and offered valuable suggestions. I am much indebted for the inspiration and guidance he offered from time to time until the completion of the thesis.

I extend my heart-felt thanks to Dr. N. Kalaithasan, Dr. L. Thirunavukkarasu and Dr. A. Antonysamy Visiting Professors, Department of English and Foreign Languages, Alagappa University, Karaikudi. I owe my most sincere gratitude to them for their advice, help and extensive discussions around my work.

My thanks are due to my dear friend Dr. S. Valliammai, Asst. Professor, Department of English and Foreign Languages, Alagappa University, for her continuous support.

I sincere thank my friends Dr. D. Vadivambal and Mr. M. Natarajan Teaching Assistant, Department of English and Foreign Languages, Alagappa University, Karaikudi for their continuous encouragement and support in my thesis.
It is with a profound sense of gratitude that I acknowledge the help and encouragement rendered by the University Grants Commission as I have been awarded the Rajiv Gandhi National Research Fellowship.

I express my special gratitude to the headmaster, teachers and IX Standard students of Alagappa Model Higher Secondary School, Karaikudi who extended their wonderful cooperation.

I am very grateful to my parents Thiru. SP. Chellakannu and my mother Tmty. C. Muthu my sisters Dr. Suganthi and Dr. Sumithra for their unsparing encouragement which acted as a driving force in completing this thesis.

Finally, I thank God Almighty for his blessings showered on me to take up this great work and complete it successfully.

S. Sudha