ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Thesis entitled “Vaithamanithi Perumal Temple, Thirukolur-A Historical Study”, represents an attempt to analyse and discuss the history of temple till the twentieth century. The Thirukolur is a coastal town of Tuticorin District in South Tamil Nadu. It is 70 Kilometers away from Tuticorin.

I remember with deep sense of gratitude the days I spent with my supervisor Dr. A. H. Mohideen Badshah, Asst. Professor, Sadakathulla Appa College, Palayamkottai, Tirunelveli. Under whose inspiring guidance and constant encouragement, I was able to carry out the work.

I am indeed grateful to my College Secretary Alhaj T. E. S. Fathu Rabbani Sahib, Sadakathulla Appa College, Mr. M. C. Ramachandran, Treasurer in Thechanamara Nadarsangam Tirunelveli, V. T. Tharmaraj Nadar, Vice President of Nadar Mahajana Sangam, Madurai and My friends Mr. Velmurugan, Mr. Thangamuthu, Mr. Sadagopal, Mr. Murugan, Miss. Silvy and my family members for their encouragement.

My Sincere thanks are due to Dr. Maria John, Professor and Head, Research department of History, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli. Who always remained a source of inspiration in carrying out this research work.
I convey my feelings of gratitude to Associate Professor Dr. Sermakani, Assistant Professor Dr. Raju, Reader Dr. Murugiah, Assistant Professor Mr. Vinoth Vincent Rajesh, in History Department, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli for his encouragement.

It is my bounden duty to exposes my most sincere thanks to Mr. Appu Sadagobha Achariyar for helping me to get the relevant particulars about this temple.

I am Thankful to Mr. A.Bharath Srinivasan, Isai Computers, V.M.Chatram for neatly typing this thesis.