BIBLIOGRAPHY

Books

Journals

Krishnamurthy K. and Saibaba Saving Behaviour in India, New Delhi, Hindusthan Publishing Corporation India (1982).

Thesis Abstract

Gnanathiraviam watson, “A Study of Palmyrah Tappers in Pandaravilai Religion” Thoothukudi District, Tamil Nadu, India, Published M.Phil., Thesis submitted to Annamalai University, Annamalai Nagar, (2008).

Online edition of India’s National Newspaper Tuesday, Oct 29, 2002.

Online edition of India’s National Newspaper Thursday, June 30, 2005.

Reports and Documents

A resolution at the 15th Conference, 1933, at Palayamcottai, Urged the repeal of the Tree Tax, Letter to the governor of Madras form the N.M.S., (1933).

Arthur Margoschis, "Tirunelveli : Being an Account of the District, the People, and the Missions", Mission Field, XLII (October, 1897).

Baliga B.S., Madras District Gazetters, Madurai (Madras, 1960).

Caldwell, Lectures on the Tirunelveli Mission, "Woodpeckers are called Shanara Kurivi by Birdwatchers because they Climb Trees like Shanars" (Thurston, Castes and Tribes, 374).

Caldwell, Tirunelveli Shanars.

District Statistical Hand Book 2007 – 08, Thoothukudi District.

In the Palmyrah Forest, the Trees reach a Density of more than Eight Thousand to the Square Mile.

Pate, Madras District Gazetters: Tirunelveli.

In the 1961 Census survey of a Nadar Village in Kanyakumari, tapping remained the main source of livelihood for the Hindu Nadars, but of the 74 tappers questioned, 53 said that, they did not want their sons to continue in the same occupation. Census of India, 1961, Vol. IX; Madras, Pt. VI; Village Survey Monographs, No. 19, Kuttuthal Azbankulam.

Memorandum Submitted to His Excellency the President, Republic of India, New Delhi, on Behalf of the palmyrah Sweet Juice Tappers by Dakshina Mara Nadar Sangam, Tirunelveli, in pursuance of a resolution passed February 18, (1950).

Dakshina Mara Nadar Sangam, February 9, (1949).

Memorandum Submitted to His Excellency the President, Republic of India, New Delhi, on Behalf of the palmyrah Sweet Juice Tappers by Dakshina Mara Nadar Sangam, Tirunelveli, in pursuance of a resolution passed February 18, (1950).

Palm Industry Workers Secretary Labour Commission, Thoothukudi Diocese.

Ramasamy V.V, President of the State Palmgur Co-operative Federation, Virudhunagar, March, 1965; Madras State Palmgur Co-operative Federation, "A Note on Palmgur and Palm Products Industries in Madras State" Manuscript.

“Tamil Nadu Marine Fisher Folk Census Year 2001”, Department of Fisheries, Government of Tamil Nadu.

The census 1891 of the Government of India records 324 subdivisions while the Travancore Census of 1891 presents 11 subdivisions.

With the easing of the regulations, the D.M.N.S. later moderated its position significantly. In a letter to the deputy superintendent of police, Tirunelveli, the Sangam said that, it "enthusiastically supports prohibition" and "agrees with the policy of punishing people who make or drink
It opposed, however, the licensing and regulatory procedures which had resulted in the conviction of innocent tappers who had not secured the license. Letter, dated May 16, 1956.

Websites

palm sugar@Everything2.com.htm

www.tuticorin.net/port.htm.

www.thoothukudi.tn.ric.in www.tn.gov.in