4. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The study namely “A Comparative Study of Marketing of Financial Services between Commercial Banks and Industrial Banks in Central Mumbai” is the result of the guidance, unconditional support and encouragement received from a huge number of individuals and institutions. I place on account of the same my grateful thanks to all of them who are involved in the process.

At the inception I owe my honest indebtedness to my research guide and teacher Dr. S. S. Naikwadi, Associate Professor, Research Guide, J JT University, Rajasthan under whose direction, advice, guidance with unconditional support, avid and ardent encouragement this research and study has been successfully completed. He has been a motivating factor and made sure that the thesis is done in correct and systematic manner. I am highly honored to have him in this context; no amount of words can express my heartfelt gratitude for his constant motivation and guidance shown by him at every stage of the research process.

I would like to offer my sincere and heartfelt due respect to Dr. Gaikwad and Prof. Kazi for their encouragement and suggestions in carrying out the research work.
I express and show my respect to employees and customers of Industrial Development Bank of India (IDBI) and State bank of India (SBI) for providing necessary information with whose cooperation the research have been completed.

I pay my due respect to Dr. Rakhee Kelaskar, Prof. Prashant Shelar, Prof. Nikhil Mamaniya, Prof. Pradhnay Wankhade, Prof. Kale, Prof. Chetna Shukla, Prof. Varahan and my colleagues for their continuous support till the end of the research.

I augment my sincere thanks to all the staff members both the teaching and non – teaching staff of the Commerce and Management Department, J JT University, Rajasthan for continuous information and encouragement provided for the same.
I would also like to extend my kind wishes and many sincere thanks to all my friends, colleagues and teaching fraternity who have supported me in a great way during the collection of primary data. I also would like to express my gratitude to all those friends who gave been directly or indirectly involved themselves in helping me to carry out the research process and study.

I also would like to put forth my heartfelt feelings towards my son and champ Veer, whom I was never able to give proper attention due to my research process during the study and odd working hours of mine. The unconditional support and gratitude by my Parents and Younger Sisters for their continuous source of inspirations and missing all the family functions and occasions. My companion of Life Mrs. Rujuta Shah, who is also a Pre - Primary Teacher and an Outstanding Singer who has been the reason for and why this research has been conducted. I feel short of words to express my feelings and emotions towards her and my family members for unconditional support and have no words to appreciate the same.

The blessings of almighty GoD and all my teachers right from childhood till date who have crafted me to reach the position and levels where I am are the major source and contributors to my continuous encouragement where I stand currently and right now.

I genuinely thank once again all the individuals knowingly, unknowingly, directly or indirectly who have shown confidence, faith and deep concern towards me and my research.

Mr. Rahul Shah
