ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This research thesis Sri Vīlināthaswāmy temple at 'Tiruvīlimilalai - A study' is the outcome of my research as a part time scholar during 1990-1995 under the supervision of Dr. S. Gurumurthy Professor M.A. M. Litt. Ph.D. D.Sc. (Copenhagen) Professor and Head, Department of Ancient History and Archaeology University of Madras.

I at the outset record my gratitude to Sri K.R. Sundararajan, Secretary of Meenakshi College for women and Prof. K.S. Lakshmi M.Sc, M.Phil, Principal of Meenakshi College for women for having permitted me to pursue the research work on part time basis. I am thankful to them for the encouragement.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. S. Gurumurthy Professor and Head, Department of Ancient History and Archaeology, University of Madras, for his assiduous guidance and co-operation through out the course of my study. Without his knowledgeable suggestions and informed opinions which he gave me unstintingly my work would not have attained this shape.

I thank the chief epigraphist Archaeological survey of India, Mysore, and the superintending Archaeologist Archaeological survey of India southern circle Madras, for giving me access to the originals and transcripts to the inscriptions. I also thank Thiru Natana kasinathan the Director, and Dr. Padmavathy, Epigraphist of the Department of Archaeology Government of Tamilnadu for providing me the essential materials.
I thank the officials of the library of University of Madras, Theosophical society library, Maraimalai adigal library, U.V. Swaminatha Iyer library, Connemara public library and Meenakshi College library for all the courtesies and help in making available the books and records.

I must thank S. Viswanatha Sivacharyar the chief priest of Mylai Kapaleswarar temple, Mylapore, Dr.R. Vilinathan, Dr. R. Nagaswamy, Dr. Padmavathy Anantaram who furnished information on certain aspects I had referred to them.

I record my thanks to Thiru V. Muthukumar, Thiru. B. Ravichandra Gurukkal, Thiru. V. Dharmadurai, Thiru. T.V. Krishnamurthi of Tiruvālimiḷalai Village and the officials and Sri Mahasannidanam of Tiruvāvaduthurai Adhinam math for their co-operation during my visit to Vilinathamswami temple.

My sincere thanks to Dr. V. Vakula for her sustained interest and active support in the preparation of this work. I thank all my colleagues in the Department of History, my fellow research scholars in the Department of Ancient History and Archaeology for their suggestions.

I thank Mr. R. Venkatesan for taking photographs and Mr. Ranganathan, draughtsman for his assistance in drawing figures.
I thank my family, well wishers and all those who have made it possible for me to complete this work.

I dedicate this work to my brother (late) Dr. R. Ananthakrishnan whose fond memories generated mental energy in me to pursue and complete this research work.

LAKSHMI VENKATRAMAN