Acknowledgement

All praise to ALMIGHTY ALLAH who... “teacheth man what he knew not!”

First of all, I am thankful to Almighty Allah for providing me this opportunity to explore one of the most important topics of contemporary History and to complete the requirements of the Doctoral Programme by submitting the thesis.

The following pages are testimony to the fact that to write the thesis I have drawn on various sources and received help and cooperation from many people whose names I may or may not be able to put on record. If I forget to mention a few names of those who in one way or the other have extended help to me in my work, it should, in no way, be considered a sign of ingratitude but rather be interpreted as an instance of human error.

I would like to pay rich homage to the founders of the great institution. In fact, those noble men including Sir Syed Ahmed Khan, with a far reaching vision, unfaltering belief and consistent efforts, has laid the foundation not only for one of the biggest educational institutions, but for the progress of the community in particular and the society at large.

I would like to place on record my cordial gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Ali Athar for his expert guidance, his confidence in me and his precious support and advice during the perusal of the work. It has been my proud privilege to work under his esteemed supervision.

I would like to pay my humble and sincere thanks to Professor B.L. Bhadani, Chairman, Centre of Advanced Study, Department of History, AMU, Aligarh for his generous and kind attitude towards me.
In this connection, I consider it my pleasant duty to acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to my teachers namely Prof. R.K. Trivedi, Prof. Mansura Haider, Prof. Shireen Moosvi, Prof. Shahabuddin Iraqi, Prof. Ishiqyq Ahmad Zilli, Prof. Tariq Ahmad, Prof. Farhat Hasan, Dr. Ishrat Alom, Dr. Azra Alvi, Dr. M.K. Zaman and Dr. Parvez Nazir of CAS, Department of History for their help, encouragement and valuable suggestion as and when required.

I cannot forget the help extend to me by (Late) Dr. Iqbal Sabir and (Late) Dr. Iqbal Gani Khan who always showed their readiness for supporting me at every step of my severity.

My Doctoral Programme could not have completed without the support, guidance and prayers of my parents. My father (Late) Mr. A.F. Golam Osman was the real progenitor who induces me with the ideas of the contents of my proposed thesis. Words seem to be inadequate for immense appreciation and gratitude to my mother Mrs. Jahanara Osman, my maternal grandfather (Late) Mr. Imteiaz Ali Choudhury and my uncle Mr. Mastar Ali Laskar who have been like “Northern Stars” in the moments of darkness and pillar of strength in adversity during all the phases of my study. My maternal grand mother Mrs. Asubun Nessa Choudhury, my parent-in-law Mr. Joynal Uddin Laskar and (Late) Mrs. Rokiba Khatun Laskar and my maternal aunts Mrs. Roushana Laskar and Mrs. Gulsanara Rajbarbhuiya have provided incessant inspiration for me. I am highly indebted to my wife Mrs. Shabnam Bahar Osman and my son Aaraiz Reja Osman for their love, support, patience and prayers.

I acknowledge my deepest gratitude to my brother Mr. Ali Reja Osman, sister Mrs. Roushana Akter Jahan Osman, my brother-in-laws Mr. Zahangir Abbas Choudhury, Mr. Shamim Bahar Laskar, Mr. Shain Bahar Laskar and my sweet fondly niece Ms. Tania Abbas Choudhury who made sure, I am able to be at my best at any time of the day.
I owe immensely to Mr. Abul Hussain Mazumdar, Dr. (Mrs.) Aneessa Iqbal Sabir, Mr. Sanjeeb Dev Laskar and Dr. Shamsheed Ahmed for their most needed and timely helps.

There are not appropriate words to express all appreciations and feelings towards Mr. Abdul Matin Laskar, Mr. Ashraful A. Laskar, Mr. Mahamadul H. Laskar, Mr. Babul Hussain, Mr. Hannanur Rahman, Mr. Mohd. Ashrafuddin, Mr. Jahirul I. Laskar, Mr. Salam and all well wishers, both in Aligarh and Assam whose never ending and constant encouragement and help have supported me all along these years.

I am thankful to the Indian Council of Historical Research (I.C.H.R.) for facilitating me research fellowship which enabled me carry out research work in a very candid manner.

Of all, it is my foremost duty to thank the staff members of seminar library of CAS for their support, help and co-operation namely Mr. Yusuf Siddiqi, Mr. Arshad Ali, Mr. Bansidhar Sharma and Mr. Salman Ahmad. I should not also forget to recall the cooperation extended to me by the staffs of Maulana Azad Library, AMU, Aligarh.

I also extend my sincere gratitude to Mr. Aftab Ahmad for typing my thesis very carefully and elegantly.

Last but not the least, with all faith in the Almighty, I place this work in the hands of my examiners with the hope that they will bear with the shortcomings that might have crept into this thesis inadvertently.

Wazid Reja Osmani