ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the name of ALLAH, the mightiest in the mightiest, and the most merciful.

My earnest gratitude is due to many teachers, scholars and friends for assisting me in this work.

I acknowledge my gratitude and sincere benevolence to Dr. Mohd. Parwez, Centre of Advanced Study, Department of History, A.M.U. Aligarh. It is under his supervision and inspiring guidance that this work has been completed.

I am thankful to my teachers Professor Irfan Habib, Professor Emeritus, and Professor Shireen Moosvi for their timely help and suggestions during the course of work. I express my gratitude for suggesting me the topic and suggesting several primary sources. Their suggestions were extremely helpful in completing this work.

I express my gratitude to Prof. Tariq Ahmad, Chairman and Coordinator, Centre of Advanced Study, Department of History, A.M.U. for his timely response to my request for leave and other official formalities.

I am also thankful to Prof. Ishtiyaq Ahmad Zilli, Prof. S.P. Verma, Prof. Iqtidar Husain Siddiqui who had been the constant inspiration to me during the course of my study.
I am also thankful of Prof. Zakia Siddiqui former Principal, Women’s College, A.M.U., at present O.S.D. Aligarh Public School, whose inspiration gave me the influence to pursue this course.

I extend my sincere thanks to the staffs of National Archives of India, Delhi, for their ready response to the request for the assistance.

Also to the staffs of Nehru Memorial Museum and Library of ASI, Delhi, J.N.U and Jamia Millia Islamia University Libraries, Maulana Azad Library A.M.U, Professor Nurul Hasan Research Library, Centre of Advanced Study, Department of History, A.M.U.

I thank all my friends whose prayers and wishes always made me confident to pursue the work to its completion. Last though not least, I am very grateful to my Father, Mother, Brother, Sisters and in laws and to my beloved husband with whose constant support I was able to complete the work. My beloved children were also much energized to assist me in making graphs and tables.

Above all, I praise Almighty God for His mercy and benevolence to complete my research work in time.
