The completion of this study has been an onerous task for me which I could have never completed without the support of many people. First and foremost, I would like to pay my obeisance to God Almighty, who has been generous enough to grant me strength for fulfillment of my task. His constant blessings kept me guided on my path in spite of many obstacles on the way.

If this study has been able to see the light of the day, it is entirely due to the effort of my guide and mentor Dr. J.S. Pasricha, Professor, Department of Commerce, Punjabi University, Patiala. I have been truly blessed by his in depth knowledge of topic, thorough understanding of financial markets and meticulousness in writing. He motivated me to carry out this research and persuaded me for carrying quality work. My hard work at nights has always been supplemented by his continuous efforts to enrich me with new ideas and new methods.

I am highly grateful to Dr. R.S. Arora, Professor, Department of Commerce for inspiring me to complete this research in time. My discussions with him has always provided me new learning and insights to explore the topic in detail.

I will always be thankful to Dr. Rajeev Kansal, Head, Department of Commerce for his constant motivation and cooperation in handling of administrative details in submission and completion of my thesis.

I am equally thankful to Mr. Ramandeep Singh, Mr. Molu Ram and other office staff of Commerce department who has accorded help to me as and when required.

My words of thanks also goes to my worthy Principal Dr. Usha Kapoor and my fellow colleagues at GNDU College, Jalandhar who have supported me by relieving me from any extra work during my busy days. My colleagues of the Department of Management Studies, GNDU College, Jalandhar earn special thanks for their wonderful insights provided to me in relation to corporate finance. The library staff of GNDU College, Jalandhar deserve equal accolades for making books available at my demand.
I am deeply indebted to the library staff of Punjabi University Patiala, Panjab University Chandigarh, Guru Nanak Dev University Amritsar and Lovely Professional University Phagwara for allowing me free access to books and journals in their respective institutions. My dear friend Mr. Om Parkash from DAV College Jalandhar deserves no less appreciation for helping me in typesetting and printing of my work.

My respectable mother, Smt. Krishan Bala Arora has been the embodying force providing me the mental support in difficult times. Her endeavor has always been to provide me congenial and supporting environment at home for achievement of best results.

Last but not the least, no words are sufficient enough to express my deep gratitude to my wife Puja Arora and my daughter Amishi who have been instrumental in granting me sufficient time and energy for completion of this immense task. Their sacrifices in terms of my ignorance and avoidance can never be compensated in any way.

Finally, I am thankful to all the people who have been associated with my work in any way.
