ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The task of conducting a study is not an easy one and there are many people involved who contribute to the bulk of the material which ultimately has to be collated by the author.

Among these people the person who deserves the most gratefulness is my esteemed guide Dr. Gayatree Goswamee, Professor, Department of Education, Gauhati University who not only provided in me the initial spark that lighted the concept but who has guided me through the course of the study at every step of the way, providing me with encouraging words more times than I can count.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Jagat Swargiary, Head, Department of Education, Gauhati University for his kind cooperation and valuable advice.

My sincerest thanks goes to the faculty members of the Department of Education, Gauhati University for their help, suggestions and kind cooperation during my research study.

My gratefulness goes to my colleagues from Govt. Bani Kanta College of Teacher Education, Guwahati who stood by me during the course of the study and chipped in with valuable suggestions from time to time.

The Principals and Teachers and other supporting staff of the schools visited for the study deserves special mention for making time out of their tight schedules to cooperate with me whenever I needed their help.
My sincerest thanks goes to the ‘adolescents’ of the respective schools without whom this study would not have seen the light of the day. I cannot forget the parents of the students of the schools visited who contributed significantly to the study by sharing their ‘aspirations’ for their respective children with me.

I am grateful to all the officials and staff of the various libraries and institutions I have visited during the course of my study. My special thanks goes to Sovonjit Chatterjee from the National Library, Kolkata who was always eager to help me whenever I needed it.

My thanks goes to Mr. Dipak Das who was of great help during the course of my analysis of data.

My family deserves special mention for the important role it has played in this endeavour. My husband Satyajit Baruah and my two adolescent children Angshuman and Atrayee stood by me like three pillars of support and from whom I could gather the necessary strength and resolve needed to complete this study.

My gratefulness goes to my mother, my sister, my brother and all other family members for all their love and support during this study.

My sincerest thanks to all those persons involved in typing and printing out this research report.

I would also like to take the opportunity to thank all those persons whose names may have not found mention among the pages of this study but who nonetheless have contributed in whatever small way they could to make this study a fruitful one.
