ACKNOWLEDGMENT

First and foremost, I express my heartfelt gratitude and sincere thanks to my Ph.D supervisor Dr. Navitha Thimmaiah, Assistant Professor of Economics, Department of Studies in Economics and Co-operation, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore for her invaluable guidance, constant encouragement, constructive comments, sympathetic attitude and immense motivation, which has sustained my efforts at all stages of my research work. I am indebted to her for constant guidance, inspiration and moral support.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to the south-zone Tibetan Representative Office Bangalore, Settlements Representative Office, Principals of Central School for Tibetans, Data in charge of Settlements Hospitals and Old-age Home Administrator at Bylakuppe and Mundgod for providing the required data and valuable information relates to my research work.

I thank all the teaching and non-teaching members of the Department of Studies in Economics and Co-operation, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore, who have provided me their ongoing support during the course of my research work.

Profound thanks to my friends Mamatha and Sarah for helping me in the course of my research work.

Words are not enough to express my gratitude and indebtedness towards my beloved Parents Tsering Choephel and Dekey Dolker, Emi and Aku, brothers, sisters and Paldentsang family members who have always been a constant source of encouragement and support to me throughout my research work. Special thanks to my dearest brothers Jamyang Lode and Tenzin Woeser.

My sincere regards to all the respondents of primary study area for sharing their necessary information for the study during the course of the research work.

Finally, I express my deep sense of gratitude and thankfulness to all those who helped me directly or indirectly in this regard.

Tenzin Tsekyi