Acknowledgements

I owe life indebtedness to Kul Malik Radha Soami Dayal who has showered light and gave strength to me throughout the course of my study and in my life and who has made possible the existence of this thesis by perpetual motivation and sheer Grace.

It gives me profound pleasure to record my heart-felt gratitude to my reverend supervisor Dr. Maninder Singh Randhawa, Professor and Head, Department of Sociology and Social Anthropology, Punjabi University, Patiala under whose able supervision this research work has been executed. I am greatly indebted to him for his intellectual guidance, genial modesty, constructive criticism, constant encouragement to steer through the ordeal of this research work, besides sparing time for scrutinizing the manuscript inspite of his busy schedule.

I also express my sincere gratitude to Mrs Sharanjeet Kaur Randhawa for encouraging and extending timely help and co-operation throughout my Ph.D. work.

I am deeply indebted to my teachers Prof. Malkit Kaur, Prof. H.S. Bhatti, Prof. Birinder Pal Singh and Dr. Deepak Kumar, Department of Sociology and Social Anthropology, Punjabi University, Patiala who gave me suggestions from time to time for improvement in the quality of the research work as well as office staff of the department for their kind co-operation in executing the research work.

No words of mine can adequately express sincere and heartfelt thanks to my father Mr. G.L. Vadhera, my mother Mrs. Pushpa Vadhera and my young brother Mr. (Er.) Paras Vadhera for their inspiration, patience, good wishes and unstinted encouragement throughout my Ph.D. work. I will remain forever indebted to my beloved parents for their support, profound affection, positive attitude and whole hearted co-operation without which this work could not have seen the light of the day.

I owe volumes of thanks to my dear friend Mr. Narinder Singh Chauhan who stood by me in the strongest winds and gave me his unflinching support, encouragement and confidence throughout this task. I thank my special friends Tejeshwari Bawa, Harinder Kaur and Navshagan Deep Kaur Toor for their moral support and encouragement.

I also express my sincere gratitude to Mr. Dharampal Singh for extending timely help and co-operation throughout my Ph.D. work.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. Popinder Singh Kullar for his valuable suggestions and useful assistance from time to time throughout the course of my research work.

I also owe my profound thanks to hockey coaches Mr. G.B. Dhangwal, Mr. I.S. Gill, Mr. Patel, S. Hira Singh, Mr. Wazir Chand at Patiala; Mr. Balsinder Singh at Faridkot; S. Gurdev Singh, S. Malkiat Singh, Mr. Avtar Singh at Jalandhar; Mr. Ramandeep Singh Grewal (Director Sports), Mr Gurteg at Ludhiana; and Mr. Balwinder Singh, Mr. Kuljeet Singh at Amritsar.

I wish to record my thanks to Mr. Ramandeep Singh Grewal who gave me an opportunity to have an interview with the great hockey Olympians during the Common Wealth Games which were held in March 2010 at
New Delhi. I also extend my sincere thanks to all the hockey Olympians and international hockey players for providing me the relevant and valuable information concerning my topic inspite of their busy schedule.

I am thankful to all the respondents for their much needed co-operation without which the research work has never been completed.

Last but not the least, I am grateful to all those who helped me directly or indirectly to achieve the goal, and to whom I have not been able to express my gratitude individually in completion of this study.
