I am very much grateful to Almighty God and my Spiritual Masters Dr. Narayan Datt Shrimaliji, Babuji Maharaj and the living master Kamalesh Patel, Sahaj Marg, for their blessings and providing me an opportunity to pursue Ph. D Course in the Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Law.

I express my sincere and respectful gratitude and indebtedness to my research guide Dr. Devidas G. Maley, Assistant Professor, Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Law, Gulbarga University, Kalaburgi, who has been guiding me since my initiation of my research work who stood behind me in every walks of my research work and clarified what steps are to be adopted for the research work i.e. collecting the research materials, conceptualizing, sorting, analyzing the topic under study, he has always inspired, encouraged and helped me in my research work whenever required and clarified things on the topic of my research work without whom the research work would not have been completed in an efficient manner.

I express my respectful thanks with sincere gratitude and indebtedness to my revered teacher Prof. J. S. Patil, Former Vice-Chancellor, Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi, Dean, Faculty of Law and Chairman, Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Law, Gulbarga University, Kalaburgi for his guidance and lectures in the subject of Legal Research Methodology which was helpful to me in completion of my research work in an efficient manner which has made my study easier from the stage of identifying the legal research problem, based upon which hypothesis was framed, due to which my ability to think reached newer heights, that the old method of social science research work is suitable enough to carry Social Science Research. The Legal Research method of innovative thinking, conceptualizing, concept mapping, brain mapping, reflective thinking, deductive and inductive method, approaching the legal problem from various dimensions, along with applying comparative method has provided me with rich opportunities to adopt and analyze the subject under research effectively.

I express my sincere gratitude and indebtedness to my teacher, Dr S. S. Patil, Professor, Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Law, Gulbarga University, Kalaburgi, for his kind co-operation, constant guidance and timely suggestions.

I also express my sincere thanks to Dr. R. B. Gadgilmath, Chief Librarian Gulbarga University, Dr. M. T. Kattimani, Deputy Librarian, Suresh Jange and other Staff members of the Virtual Library of the Gulbarga University, Kalaburagi and also I extend my sincere thanks to Sri. R. S. Doddamani, Deputy Registrar, GUK.

I also sincerely thank the non-teaching staff of the Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Law for their kind co-operation.

I am thankful to my friends for their best wishes, kind co-operation and help especially Dr. Malleshi Sajjan, Dr. Baswaraj Chincholi, Rajshekhar, Mallikarjun Aralappa, Vikram Allipur, Sharaaakumar N. Tanga and other Research Colleagues.

I am also thankful to my family for their assistance, co-operation and help in carrying out the research work.

I record my deep sense of gratitude to my parents for their blessings, great support, and endless love during my study period without whom it would not be possible.

Gulbarga
