ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this very gentle opportunity to mention the names of those people who have been very much concerned for the timely completion of this thesis.

First and foremost, I pay reverence to the omniscient, omnipresent, omnipotent God who has perpetually blessed me with content and love.

I wholeheartedly take this very gentle opportunity to place on record my profound gratitude to my friend, philosopher and Guide, my constant source of inspiration, like Lord Krishna to Arjuna, my Guide Dr Jagdish Joshi for giving erudite guidance, informative and critical discussions and constant encouragement which have enabled me to take up and complete this study. To work under the guidance of such an eminent person like Dr Joshi has been a great and inexplicable experience, which will go a long way down my memory lane in my life. My hearty thanks go to him. I extend equal respect and gratefulness to Dr Priyanki Vyas Joshi, life-partner of my guide Dr Joshi for her equally valuable motivation and encouragement for the timely completion of my work. Her divine and ever smiling face is still in my heart with all her care, kindness and co-operation that she extended to me as many times as I happened to visit their home for my research work. All thanks to Jill and Atri, their sweet children for sacrificing their filial rights for me for the timely completion of my work.

I also take this opportunity to remember my English teachers Shri G. K. Patel, (S.S.C years), Shri Arvindbhai Chaudhary (H.S.C years) for their initial love and care for nurturing English in me. Words and expressions are insufficient to whole heartedly thank my Guru Prof P. A. Kuriyakose (Former Head, Dept. of English, Arts College, Mehsana) for his everlasting love, care and concerns extended to me since my first day of college life. I am deeply indebted to him for nurturing in me, sincerity, hard work, commitment, and many other ethics of the divine profession of being a teacher which continue to help me survive in my professional and personal life. Equal thanks to Dr Darsha Jani, (head, Dept. of English, Arts college Mehsana), Prof Harshad Purohit, Prof Yagnesh Prajapati and Prof Dr Kamal Dave, and of course Prof Dr Jagdish Joshi, who, on various stages of my life, have, done their best to make me what I am today, from a simple village farmer boy. Ever since my student life, they all have constantly motivated me and inspired me to do hard work and also have appreciated all my small and big achievements and for keeping me active and energetic to fulfil my goals with all care and kindness. Thank you teachers for all you have done for me, and I promise you to do the same to my students and that will be best Guru-dakshina from me to you.

Words are an inadequate medium to express my deep sense of gratitude. I sincerely feel that all the credit should go to my father Naranbhai and mother Shardaben, for their invaluable blessings for my career advancement. They have always given me ample scope for my career advancement ever since I was in school. It gives me immense pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to my sweet, loving and caring wife Shital for her keen interest, propelling inspiration and valuable suggestions. She shared valuable ideas with me, kept the environment charged and gave constant encouragement and motivation throughout the research work.

I wholeheartedly express my love and thanks to my only son Prince for showing all maturity at a very young age to facilitate me in all possible ways by sacrificing all his rights as my son, to play with him, go with him to parents meeting, help him do his homework, and many more of his rights for the timely completion of my work.

I shall be failing in my duty if I forget my Parents in-law Shri Ramanbhai and Smt Chandrikaben and my close friend and brother-in-Law Bhavin, his wife Trupti and their cute daughter Francy for their consistent prayers, affectionate blessings, selfless care and endless confidence in me. I am indebted infinitely to the love, care for me patience and trust being showered on me. I heartily believe that, without support of them all, I would have never come to the stage of writing this acknowledgement.

My sincere gratitude to Dr. K. M. Chudasama, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities, Ganpat University, Kherva for extending all the facilities and encouragement for the timely completion of my work.
Thanks to all the Colleagues of my Department for giving me all time-convenience to my lecture-schedules, free slots and departmental duties during my research tenure. They have been very supportive and co-operative for the timely completion of my work. I, especially, thank our peon Dinesh bhai for all the running about for photocopies and stationery and making available all the necessary resources as and when needed during my research work.

I again express my sincere thanks to all the persons who helped and supported me directly or indirectly in the journey of fulfillment of my good objective.

VIKRAM N. PATEL

Date: 15/02/2016
Place: Ganpat Vidyanagar