First, I would like to express my salutation to GOD for giving me the strength, confidence and moral boost to successful completion of this project.

It is great pleasure for me to acknowledge all those who have contributed towards the conception, origin and nurturing of this project.

A perfect teacher is a guide, philosopher and mentor, which I could experience in my respected and esteemed guide. I consider myself the lucky to work under the expert guidance of Dr. Pragna K. Shelat, head of the department and Professor of Pharmaceutics at K.B.I.P.E.R., Gandhinagar. I take this opportunity to express my deep gratitude and sincere thanks to my respected guide. Her deep field knowledge, discipline, principles, simplicity and provision of stress-free work environment will be unforgettable in all walks of my life. I am highly indebted to her for her valuable advices, support, shared intelligent thought and everlasting encouragement throughout my term work. To work under the guidance of such an outstanding person has been a great and inexplicable experience. My hearty thanks go to her.

I am grateful to our Principal Dr. G. B. Shah for providing the facilities in the institute for completion of this work.

My deepest gratitude to Mrs. Archita Patel, Dr. Bhavesh Barot, Dr. Punit Patel, Mrs. Hetal Patel, Dr. Darshana Modi for sharing their views, constant guidance, scientific insight and invaluable support as well as help in conducting my study. I am extremely thankful to Mrs. Anita Lalwani, Mr. Shrikalp Deshpande and Dr. Maitreyi Zhaveri for providing critical suggestions on my topic of dissertation and continuous guidance throughout the investigation.

It would have never been possible for me to take this project to completion without the ideas and support of all staff members of K. B. Institute of Pharmaceutical education and research, Kadi sarva vishwavidhyalaya, Gandhinagar.
“Your sorrows get divided and your happiness gets multiplied with your friends.” A friend is a person who understands your feelings, emotion and helps you to be what you to be. I thank a lot my friends Kaushal Patel, Chirayu Pathak, Priya Shah and Monali Modi who helped me in hardship through the sweet fragrance of friendship without which I could not have won all the battles.

I am thankful to my parents and my aunty Ms. Vandana Mody (Vise president, Cadila Pharmaceuticals Ltd.) who led me from darkness to light, ignorance to enlighten and confusion to clarity throughout my life.

I am also thankful to all my classmates, seniors as well as my dearest juniors for their support and helpful nature.

Last, but not the least, I express my gratitude and apologize to everybody whose contributions, I could not mention in this page.

“May the candle be lightened forever, the joy is not of light alone, but of presence of those, who played the role behind the curtain.”
