PREFACE

“PEASANTRY IN THE MEDIEVAL TAMIL COUNTRY WITH REFERENCE TO THE CHOLAS AND PANDYAS” forms the title of this thesis. In this study I am trying to identify the various dimensions of peasantry in the Tamil country. I completed this piece of research work as a FDP and part-time candidate.

First of all I express my heartfelt thanks to the Vice-Chancellor and Syndicate members of the Madurai Kamaraj University for permitting me to do this research in this University.

This research endeavour could not have been completed without the active help extended by many individuals and institutions in several ways. I express my gratitude to those who have spared their time and energy to help complete this work.

I express my deep sense of indebtedness to my revered Supervisor and Guru Dr. B.S.Chandrababu, Professor and Head, Department of Medieval History and Chairperson, School of Historical Studies, Madurai Kamaraj University, Madurai. His ready help and inestimable guidance, inspiring encouragement, patient hearing of my numerous queries, scholarly explanations and prudent suggestions during the course of preparation of this work made its completion possible in this form. I express my hearty thanks to him.

I wish to record my sincere thanks to Professor Dr. S.Manickam, Professor, former Head and Co-ordinator, School of Historical Studies, Madurai Kamaraj University, Madurai for giving me opportunity to study in the department.
I express my thanks to Dr. P. Sarveswaran, formerly Course Convener, Professor, School of Historical Studies, Madurai Kamaraj University for having provided me a conducive atmosphere to study.

I am thankful to Dr. D. Daniel, Professor and Head, Department of Modern History, Dr. P.B. Gopalakrishnan, Professor in Modern History, Dr. K.V. Jeyaraj, Professor in Modern History, for extending their moral support in the completion of my research study.

I also remain grateful to Dr. T. Ramasamy, Professor and Head, Department of Ancient History, and Member Syndicate, and Dr. R. Santhakumar, Reader in Ancient History, School of Historical Studies, Madurai Kamaraj University for their kind help extended to me in my research pursuits.

I am thankful to Dr. G. Sethuraman, Professor and Head & Chairperson, School of Performing Arts, Madurai Kamaraj University, Madurai who gave valuable suggestion and for lending valuable books.

I am thankful to Dr. V. Vedachalam, Tamil Nadu State Department of Archaeology for his encouragement and suggestion. I thank Mr. A. Mahalingam, Research Scholar, Department of Art History for his help towards the completion of this work. I am thankful to Dr. Mavilirajan, Lecturer in History, Visvabharathi University at Santhiniketan who provided some materials and encouraged me for the successful completion of the thesis. I thank to Mr. T. Ramasamy, Research Scholar, School of Tamil Studies who has provided accommodation while I was preparing for my Ph.D. I also extend my thanks to Mrs. Meenal formerly M.Phil. scholar and Ms. Abharajitha and Ms. Sriveni devi of the School of Historical Studies who helped in collection of material work.
I am bound to thank Mr. J.Balasubramanian, for finding out relevant sources from the Inscriptions and books in this endeavour.

I extend my thank to my wife Mrs. M.Prabha Devi, for her kind cooperation in completing the research work.

Lastly I extend my heartful thank to Mr. J.Balasubramanian, Valarmathi Typing Centre, Palkalainagar, Madurai for his careful and neat execution of this thesis on the Computer.

I also extend my thanks to each and every individual who helped me in various ways in the fulfillment of this thesis.
