ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I thank God almightily for being with me all the time and hearing my prayers during the ups and downs of my life.

I am extremely grateful to my guide Prof. Dr. Mrs. Uma Joshi, Former Professor, Department of Psychology, Banasthali university, who has been a constant support for me during the entire years of Ph.D. She gave timely guidance and meticulous supervision for my dissertation and inculcated my interest in life skills. She has been an outstanding source of inspiration for hard work and dedication. Words cannot express my gratitude towards her. I consider myself very fortunate for having her as my guide.

I would like to thank the Banasthali University for providing me the opportunity to complete my dream of Ph.D.

I would like to thank my teacher Dr. Sandhya Gupta, faculty, College of nursing, AIIMS, Delhi who always encouraged me for years along the journey.

I am very much obliged and grateful to all children for sparing their invaluable time and willingness to take the test and training of life skills. They helped me a lot to collect the required data. Without their generous co-operation and readiness to help and respond, this work could not have been completed.

I am also thankful to all the heads and staff of NGO’s and clinics for their kindness and cooperation in data collection process and training of life skills.

Without the support and motivation of my parents, brother and husband, my research work would have never been completed. They gave me encouragement throughout the process. They encouraged me when I was discouraged, pushed me to give a little more and helped me every step of the way. I am thankful for their faith in me. I am thankful to them for helping me to finish my goal.

Once again my thanks to everyone who have contributed one way or the other way and helped me in the completion of my work.
