ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The success of one’s academic venture depends to a very large extent on the cooperation, sacrifice and moral contributions of many others. I am therefore very much indebted to a number of people who helped me to complete my research work successfully.

Words are not enough to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my distinguished research supervisor Dr. B. Krishna Reddy, Programme Coordinator, State Resource Center for Adult & Continuing Education, Habsiguda, Hyderabad, for his meticulous supervision, scholarly guidance, creative suggestions, prudent advice, affectionate treatment, appreciative encouragement, fervent personal interest & ungrudging support from the beginning to the end of this piece of research.

I profoundly thank Prof. P. Prasad, Dean, Faculty of Education, IASE, Osmania University, for rendering his valuable help whenever needed during my research endeavor.

I express immense pleasure and uncountable gratitude to Prof. T. Mrunalini, Head and Chairperson, BOS in Education, IASE, Osmania University, for her suggestions and discerning ideas in the research work. I extend my sincere thanks to Prof. M. Sakkubhabya, Principal, Department of Education, IASE, Osmania University, for her support in completing the research work.

I acknowledge my sincere thanks to Prof. K.S. Sudheer Reddy, Prof. C. Madhumathi, Prof. A. Ramakrishna, and Prof. D. Balaramulu, Department of Education, IASE, Osmania University, for their expert advice and motivation to bring out this research work.

I thank to Asst Prof P.Shankar, Asst Prof D.Sunitha, Asst Prof J.Lalitha, Asst Prof Durgesham, Asst Prof B. Sujatha, Osmania University for their cooperation and encouragement.

I convey my regards to the Librarian Mr. Venkataiah, Computer Lab Assistant Mr. Shiva and Non-Teaching Staff, Department of Education, IASE, Osmania University, Hyderabad for their cooperation.

I wish to place on record my heartfelt thanks to the Principals, teachers and Students of the special education schools for permitting me to conduct the study. At the same time, I fail in my duties if I don’t thank my well wisher, friend and co-scholar Mr. T. Manichander for his motivation and suggestions for completing the research work. Also thanks to Sri P. Sathya Narayana for his continuous support at each and every stage of the study.

I convey my gratitude to my Father, Brother, Sisters and in-Laws for their moral support and encouragement throughout the study and without their support the research work wouldn’t have been completed without the whole hearted support. In fact they extended financial support to complete this work. My special thanks to my Grand Mother Mrs. Manni Bai and uncle Mr. G. Srinivas Naik for their blessings.

I am thankful to my eldest sister Mrs. J. Geetha Bai who inspired, supported and guided me as a mother at my early stage of education to reach the present level. There are no words for me to express my gratitude, love and affection for her constant encouragement.

Last but not the Least; I thank my life partner Mrs. G. Rajeswari for her necessary support to complete this research work. My thanks to my sweet heart Kaushal for not disturbing me during the execution of my research work.
