CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

1. Introduction

   I (a) Problem .................................................. 1

   II Methodology .................................................. 8

   III Theory ......................................................... 18

Chapter II. The Socio Political Systems

   I (a) Ecology and Habitat ......................................... 31

   (b) Affinity with others ......................................... 37

   II. Myth of Origins and polity

       (a) Socio-Political segmentation ............................. 46

       (b) Migration and social segments .......................... 55

Chapter III. Cosmological Legitimacy of Naga Identity.

   I. Cosmology and socio-Political typologies .................. 125

   II. Kinship basis on myth ....................................... 131

   III. Naming, Clan Titles and Social Solidarity ............. 136

   IV. The Morung institution and Clan Recruitments ........... 145

   V. Head hunting, fertility Cult and Concept of Life and Death 155

   VI. Meghalitic culture and social structure .......................... 168

   VII. Spirit and Soul ............................................. 173
Chapter V. Customary Laws and Legal system

I. Civil administration and the role of the political agent, Deputy Commissioner and Dobashis 355

II. Administrative promulgations and preservation of traditional institutions 366

III. Institutionalization of traditional customary laws and customs 383

(a) Religious Aspect 383

(b) Land holdings and social relations 387

(c) Clan relationship, morung, rights of women and inheritance. 408

Chapter VI. Economy and encapsulation process 420

I. Social basis of economic structure 420

(a) Emergence of private property and inequality 420

II. Encapsulation and polity reaction 431

(a) The process of colonial economic penetration 431

(b) The changing profile of land tenure system 437

III. Urbanization and economic change 449

IV. Industrialization and social change 461

V. Tribal identity and economic development 466

Chapter VII:

Conclusion 472

Appendix 1

Bibliography 1
VIII. The Encounter with Exogenous Religious Systems

(a) Christianity

(b) Haraka cult and Hinduism

Chapter IV Social and Polity formation

I. The Anghdom and its expansion

(a) Angbang of Phom Segment

(b) Unger of Aos

(c) Qung of Changs

(d) Ki-unger of Yimchunger

II. Meson of Khiamungans

III. Yangchachar of Sangtams

IV. The Akekao-dom

V. The Kemovhood

VI. Wungva/Awungwa of Tankhuls

VII. The Khul group typologies

II. The process of Social and Polity formation before the encapsulation process

III. Interaction with encapsulating political systems.

(a) Nagas and the Valley Kingdoms

(b) Nagas and the British Colonial Capitalism

(c) The Naga non-State nation