ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Gratitude is the memory of the heart” – J. B. Massieu

Any work of research nature that intends to produce something new, more than one head requires. It is some type of teamwork. In the preparation of this thesis also I have taken enough helps directly and indirectly from many generous people.

First and foremost, I would like to thank profusely my teacher, supervisor, guide and guardian Prof. Dr. Krishnapada Majumder for his constant unfailing guidance, support, care, and confidence on my abilities, from the very inception of the idea, to formulation, commenting, drafting, formatting, editing and completing of this research work. What he did for me in my master’s and research study is beyond imagination for many. He has helped me to understand and recognize the truth of academics, academician and of life. He not only provided me intellectual nourishment but also parental guidance when I needed. I am indebted-for-ever to him for his abiding faith, warmth, care and support. Words are not sufficient to express even what I could express. I believe I am extremely lucky to find him constantly enriching and nourishing my thinking.

I am also thankful to my beloved teacher Prof. Amitava Chatterjee, who had very kindly checked my proposal and made suggestions wherever necessary. I am also equally thankful to all my teachers of the Dept. of Lib. & Inf. Sc, Jadavpur University, like Dr. Chaitali Dutta Madam, Dr. Sunil Kumar Chatterjee, Dr. Udayan Bhattacharya, Dr. Subarna Kumar Das, Mr. Tarun Kumar Mandal, Dr. Gautam Maity for their valuable help in each and every step from my very first day of my academic life at the department. Equally I would like to thank Dr. Satyabrata Roy, Dr. Swapan Deogoria, and Dr. Binod Bihari Das for their generous help and inspiration.
