Acknowledgements

My thanks, are due to many...

Professor R.P. Anand and Professor Rahamatullah Khan for initiating my approach to the study and also for the love and affection bestowed on me.

Professor V.S. Mani, for his constant encouragement and support. I also thank him for going through some parts of the draft thesis.

Dr. B.S. Chimni, for all that he has done to evolve this work. Without him, I would not have completed this work. I owe a everlasting debt to him for his patience and the love he gave me while supervising this work.

Dr. Y.K. Tyagi and Dr. Bharat Desai for their help and encouragement.

Mr. B.K. Keayla of the National Working Group on Patent Laws, for all the help in providing me the necessary documentation.

Mr. Shanti Kumar, former Controller-General of Patents and Trade Marks, for clarifying many intricacies in the working of the Indian patent system and Indian Patents Act.

Mr. C. Niranjan Rao of ICRIER for helping me in various ways, particularly in providing the documentations.

My Colleagues at the Asian-African Legal Consultative Committee (AALCC), particularly Mr. P.K. Jha and Mr. K.J.S.R. Kapoor for all the required help and constant support.

Sri S. Raju Aiyer for finally framing this work with all the dedication. I also owe my thanks to his family for the hospitality given to me while finalizing the work.

For all the friends who have given me the constant support and encouragement. Thanks to Sangeeta and Padmanab in particular.

I remember with gratitude the help rendered to me by the staff and authorities of the following libraries: Jawaharlal Nehru University, Indian Society of International Law, Indian Law Institute, Indian Council for the Research in International Economic Relations (ICRIER), RIS Library, Patent Offices (Calcutta and Delhi), United States Information Service, and the British Council.
My special thanks are also due to the Information Division, World Intellectual Property Organization (Geneva) for regularly sending me the required documentation. I also thank the Information Division of the Office of the European Community at New Delhi for all the necessary help in securing the documentation.

I would like to remember with great joy the abundant love and affection showered on me by my parents at a time when I was finding it hard to complete this work. My grandmother is no more with me now to see this dream realised. I also would like to remember with great joy the love and support given to me by everyone at the "Dover Lane". I also cannot forget the "constant concern" shown by Umesh uncle, Uma aunty, SG Uncle and Gitakka in my work. Now, they all will have to worry about something else!

Finally, I owe a great deal to my wife Rupamanjari. Without her constant encouragement and companionship I could not have completed this work. She was a source of strength throughout. Our little child, Kamolini, may now no longer have to bear with the deprivation of my company.
