Acknowledgements

First and foremost I owe my greatest indebtedness to my supervisor Prof. I.N. Mukherji who guided my research work. He has been very helpful all through the work and always acted as an informal guide. I am at paucity of words to express my gratitude to him.

I am equally thankful to Mr. K.J. Alphons, who provided the insight of having first hand information from his experience while working on literacy programmes in Kerala. I convey my sincere thanks to Mr S.R. Howlader and Dr Abdul Barkat who helped me a lot during the field visit to Bangladesh.

I am thankful to organizations like, Bangladesh Bureau of Statistics, BRAC, URC Bangladesh, Dhaka University Library, BIDS, and other NGOs who extended their cooperation in providing me the materials to carry out the research. Besides the staff of UNICEF, UNESCO, UNDP, NIEPA, NCERT, JNU Library have also facilitated the research through their kind cooperation.

I convey my thanks to my friends, Sameer and Zulu for their timely help and suggestions. It is a pleasure to acknowledge the patience and skill with which Mr. Gulshan Batra and M/s A.P. Computers for typing this work.

Above all, I am greatly indebted to my loving parents and family members for their steady encouragement and inspiration.

Lastly, if there is any mistake, I alone am responsible.

Ambika Prasad Nanda