ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

So many persons and institutions have provided invaluable help and cooperation for this work that it is impossible to record them all here. However, I must make special mention of a few.

With deep sense of gratitude, I thank my supervisor, Professor V.
Subramanian, who had introduced me to the fascinating field of environmental studies of rivers, for his guidance, understanding, patience and kindness.

I am thankful to the Dean, School of Environmental Sciences, for providing the necessary facilities for this work.

I would like to record my sincere gratitude to Dr. P.B. Tripathy of C.E.C. for rendering all possible help to complete this work in time.

I would take this opportunity to thank my seniors in the lab Vaithya, Rama, Mohan, Chakrapani and my present lab-mates Jose, Panda, James, Dilip, Chatterjee, Lallan, Prasanna, Saxena, Siva, Abdulla, Anna, Subhakar, Babu, Seema, Manoj for their help at different stages of this work.

This work would not have been possible but for the sincere help and efforts by Majoni, Indranil, Kalyan, Hiranya, Apurba, Rinku, Disha, Rakesh, Aditi, Prabir and many other well wishers.

I would also like to take this opportunity to remember some of my dear friends- Anand, Somnath, Rajkumar, Pramod, Chauhan, Malavika, Indrani, Maneesha, Angana, Jyoti, Madan, Kuhu and Sen who made my stay in JNU a never forgettable memory.

Special thanks are due to our caring Lab Assistant Vijay pal.

The love and affection of my parents, brother, sister-and sister-in-law always gave me the courage to overcome all difficulties.

Finally, my wife Kuki and daughter Hiya deserve all the credits for being a constant source of strength and inspiration and a critical factor in realization of this work.
