Acknowledgements

It gives me an immense pleasure to thank my supervisor Prof. M.N. Panini with deep respect for guiding me throughout the course of my research and providing the freedom to work. He always suggested me to go in the path of academic objectivity in a situation where a conflict of ideas and thoughts emerged.

My sincere thanks to Prof. Anand Kumar who has always been my admirable teacher, Prof. T.K. Oommen, Prof. Avijit Pathak, Prof. Tiplut Nongbri, Prof. Nandu Ram, Prof. Maitrayee Chaudhuri, Prof. Dipankar Gupta and Prof. Ehsanul Hag who taught me since my M.A. days and introduced me to the wide spectrum of the subject-matter of sociology. I am also thankful to the other faculty members of the Centre for the Study of Social Systems, JNU.

Special thanks to senior colleague Prof. Chandrasekhar Bhatt and wife Dr. Rani Bhatt for their words of encouragement and help since the first day I joined the Department of Sociology, School of Social Sciences, Hyderabad Central University (HCU). I will always remember them for their motivation in completion of my thesis.

I deeply thank my friend Dr. Joy Pachuau for editing some of the chapters. I am indebted to my colleagues Dr. V. Janardhan and Dr. Purendra Prasad who spent their precious time in providing critical comments. My heartfelt thanks to C.B. Samuel and Selina who took keen interest in my work and provided spiritual support besides encouraging me to complete my thesis. Both of them were a great source of inspiration to me. I thank Prof. Sona Minz & Rev. Bethuel, Robert, Eunice, Marianne and Noako who have given me moral support.

I express my sincere thanks to Prof. E. Haribabu for all the help and also the Department of Sociology, Hyderabad Central University (HCU) for granting me study leave for one year (2005) in order to complete my thesis. I am grateful to Mr. Srinivas of the Personnel Section-I (HCU) who is very helpful to me while seeking information as and when required. I thank the non-teaching staff of the Department of Sociology, HCU: Madhusudhan, Gupta and Thirupathaiah for their help.

Indira Gandhi Memorial Library (HCU), British Library (Hyderabad), JNU library, DSA Library of CSSS (JNU) and Delhi University Library were extremely helpful in carrying out my research work. I thank all the respondents namely, the chief functionaries, employees and beneficiaries of NGOs for providing me the primary data necessary for this research work.

I have absolutely no words to express my gratitude to my Dad, Mom and sisters Athon, Phoebe, Asen, Apuilung, Asuang and brother-in-laws Poujenlung and Tasongwi for being with me in my endeavours to see this piece of completed work. I can never forget the time that both my beloved brothers Angam and Ningning have spent in typing the manuscripts. They took pains in preparing and designing this thesis. Both of them have been of immense help and great blessings to me. Their genuine concern, prayers and moral support throughout will be cherished. I would also like to express my thanks to JNU Christian Fellowship, Naga Christian Fellowship-Hyderabad and North East Christian Fellowship-Hyderabad for their prayers. Finally, I give all the glory and honour to my Almighty God. I would not have been what I am today without God’s grace and blessings. His grace is sufficient for me indeed!

August, 2006.
New Delhi

Ajailiu Niumai.