I am thankful to my roommates Mr. Riyaz Ahmed Mir and Mr. Zahoor Ahmed Itoo for their valuable support. I should be falling in my duty if I do not mention the necessary guidance, help and encouragement provided to me by the members and staff members of Gani Kashmiri Research Scholars Inn. Mr. Javeed Ahmed deserves my sincere thanks too, for moral support where I needed.

I am highly thankful to the staff members of Alama Iqbal Library, University of Kashmir and other departmental libraries of, UMIKS, History, Political Science, and Jammu University Library, Jammu. I am also thankful to the libraries of Pakistan namely University of the Punjab Library Lahore, Government College University (Lahore), Punjab Public Library (Lahore), International Water Management Institute Library Lahore, Indus Water Commission Library Lahore, Water Management Training Institute Library (Lahore), Quaid-I-Azam University Library (Islamabad), Indus River System Authority Library (Islamabad), AJK Assembly Library (Muzaffarabad), AJK University Library (Muzaffarabad).

I am greatly thankful to Professor Gulshan Majeed and his wife Madam Nighat Parveen for their affection and attention, I received without much deserving it and I will never forget their encouragement and love which made me feel at home in Srinagar (Kashmir).

Lastly but not the least, I am indebted to my mother, father, sisters and brothers for their love and encouragement and who initiated me into the challenging world of academics. I am grateful to my brothers, Raja Muhammad Asif and Raja Tahir Nawaz as they are the pillars of strength upon which my life is built. Heartfelt thanks to the whole of my beloved family, which has been a source of joy and solace for me all through the entire career.

Concluding with this thought, that more I reflect and go back on my past, the more vividly do I feel my limitations and weaknesses, but I nevertheless endeavoured to develop my potential and find appropriate means to actualize it.

This acknowledgment will be incomplete if I will not acknowledge the writers from whose writings I have benefited most.
