Acknowledgement

At the outset I thank the almighty that this work finally acquired the status of a PhD thesis and was accepted by the Jawaharlal Nehru University, for submission overcoming all kinds of obstacles.

My parents, my father whom I miss and who wanted to see me accomplish this work but will be there only in my heart with his blessings. I would like to thank my mother for her kindness and generous support.

My supervisor, Dr. Himanshu Prabha Ray has not only been generous with her suggestions and kind-hearted with the writing of this thesis, and has also been patient while several problems arose.

I would like to thank Dr. Frank Taylor, Secretary of the Charles Wallace Trust for granting me a fellowship to undertake research at the British Library, London; Pitt Rivers Museum, Oxford; Cambridge University Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology, Cambridge and the Institute of Archaeology, London.

During the course of my research I owe my gratitude to several individuals, whom I met and gave me ideas and suggestions regarding my research, Dr. Gautam Sengupta (Director, West Bengal Archives), Dr. Dorian Fuller (Lecturer, Institute of Archaeology, London), Dr. Liz Bacus (Lecturer, Institute of Archaeology, London) and Prof. M.D. Kajale (Professor, Deccan College).

I would like to thank the staff of the American Institute of Indian Studies Library (Gurgaon), Nehru Memorial Library and Museum, Archaeological Survey of India Library, Indian Council for Historical Research Library, JNU library and the DSA library.

My visits to the region have been enriching both personally and academically. I would like to thank the staff of the North Eastern Hill University library (Shillong), K K Handique library (Gauhati University), S K Bhuyan Library (Cotton College), Department of Historical and Antiquarian studies (Guwahati), ICSSR Northeast Centre Library (Shillong), Anandaram Barooah Library (North Guwahati), Assam State Museum (Guwahati) and Anthropology department museum (Gauhati University).

The beautiful maps in this thesis were prepared digitally by Rajesh, Atul and Mithilesh from CSRD. Rajesh prepared these maps even while writing his own MPhil dissertation.

I visited several temples and sites in the region, Da-Parvatiya (Tezpur), Kamakhya temple (Guwahati), Site of Ambari (was flooded with water), Gauhati Inscription at the Kamakhya foot-hills, Suklesvar temple (Guwahati) and Hayagriva Madhava temple (Hajo).

I would like to thank my friends and family members who have been supportive in my thesis and also for their friendship Sohaib, Nilima, Ashima, Anupama, Bhawna, Rose, Jacqueline, Chandan and Dwipen. Sabyasachi for both problems created and help provided.

Lastly Biswajeet, who inspired me to undertake research on the Brahmaputra Valley and who also kept me going through the unusual circumstances while writing this thesis.

Alka