ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To the people that pushed, that pulled and that accompanied me on the way:

A journey is easier when you travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence. This thesis is the result of all who were always there when I really needed. At the end of my thesis, it is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.

First and foremost I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my supervisors, Dr. Manjeet Bansal, Department of Civil Engineering, Maharaja Ranjit Singh PTU, Bathinda and Dr. Yogesh Aggarwal, Department of Civil Engineering, National Institute of Technology, Kurukshestra for their luminous guidance and limitless motivation in executing this thesis from conception to completion. It has been an honor for me to be their Ph.D. student. I appreciate all their contributions of time, ideas, and inspirational discussions to make my Ph.D. experience productive and stimulating. Above all and the most needed, they provided me unflinching encouragement and support during tough times in the Ph.D. pursuit.

I am also extremely indebted to Prof. (Dr.) Shakti Kumar, Vice chancellor, Baddi University and Dr. Ajay Goyal, Director-Principal, RIEIT, Ropar for their constant moral support, valuable suggestions and constant help at all levels to accomplish my research work.
I owe a great deal of appreciation and gratitude to Baddi University, IIT Roorkee, Thapar University, GZSCET Bathinda for facilitating this research work through.

Sincere thanks are due to Late Er. Akash Chouhan, Er. Hmmlata Sharma, Er. Rohit Sharma and Er. Mirza Umer Beg for providing a helping hand whenever required at Baddi University of Emerging sciences & Technology, Baddi.

High regards are due to my Mummy and Papa for showing me the joy of intellectual pursuit ever since I was a child. My special thanks to loving sister Ms. Renu Jindal and brother Mr. Sanjay Garg for blessing and supporting me since childhood. I also appreciate my In-Laws encouraging me in every pursuit.

My most heartfelt, acknowledgment must go to my loving & caring wife, Dr. Rajni Garg, whose dedication, love and persistent confidence in me, turned my journey into a pleasure. My kids, Ayush and Anusha, deserve special mention who silently endured all the unpleasantries during the period of my Ph.D. work.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to Almighty for all time blessings.

Rishav Garg
