ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost my thanks are due to my respected guide, Dr P S Bansod for his able guidance of the work right from conceptualization to the end. It was a great privilege to be associated with him. I am extremely indebted to him for his keen interest inspite of his busy schedule which enabled me to put forward my efforts in the present form. His personality and supervisory style make me carry out my research work with low stress but high motivation and work involvement. My most special thanks are due to him for all the encouragements and cooperation he extended for successfully completing this study.

I am grateful to Dr Preeyaporn Wonganuthrohd, Head of the Faculty of Industrial Education and Mrs Sukhuman Nilrat, Head of Dept of Languages and Social Sciences, King Mongkut’s Institute of Technology, Latkrabang, Thailand, for readily granting me the permission to undertake this research. My many thanks are due to them.

I profusely thank to staff members of Office of the Civil Service Commission of Thailand, for their encouragement and support concerning this research.

My sincere thanks are due to P Vichian Keawrit, P Songchais Promjat, Dr Somboon Jaryen, P Prayoon Suyajai, P Wirat Ritthitham, Dr Winya Issaradet, Mr Chaiwat Phuakkhong, Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University for their encouragement and cooperation.

I thank to Dr Siriwat Srikreudong, P Saravut Wisetmuan, Dr. Termsak Thong-in, Mahachula Buddhist University, Mr Phanuwatta Juthong Secretary of Dept of Languages and Social Sciences, King Mongkut’s Institute of Technology for all the encouragement and cooperation they extended for successfully completing this study.
Sincere appreciation is also due to managers and supervisors of those industries at Bangkok city, Thailand who participated in this study for their help and cooperation in collecting data. My many thanks are due to all of them.

I thank profusely Prof. Dr. A. Vishnu Bhat, Head of the Department of English, Madras Christian College Chennai for his support and valuable guidance while carrying out research work.

My special thank go to P. Vijit, Mr. Praves Intongpan, P. Chumnong Vongkong, P. Tongpae Chattontuak research student, Pune University who have given me the valuable guidance and many support to this research work.

Prof. Lodhi, Professor and Head of the Dept. of Psychology, Pune University who helped me greatly with the analysis of data deserves a very special mention and I convert my sincere appreciation to him.

Lastly I cannot forget one person who has given me motivation and continued support from time to time to work in this form. Obviously she is my beloved lady Miss Tapawan Citprom. I have kept these memories very specially in my heart.

And finally, I am thankful to my brother and all friends who have contributed directly and indirectly to this research work.

Date 9 - 10 - 2000

Aurangabad

Ch. Thongborisut

(Chayasit Thongborisut)

Research Student