First and above all, I praise God, the almighty for providing the opportunity and granting me the capability to achieve the goals successfully. I find myself short of vocabulary as I try to pay my respects to those who have made a huge contribution in the accomplishment of my thesis. Every story has several unsung heroes and mine is no different.

I would like to take the opportunity to express my sincerest gratitude to Prof. R.B. Subramaniam, BRD School of Biosciences, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar, my mentor, to accept me as a Ph.D. student. This work is all because of his warm encouragement, thoughtful guidance, enthusiasm, patience and immense knowledge. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Ph.D. study who supported and allowed me to work in my own way. I shall be forever indebted to him for bestowing me with the opportunity to work in his research lab under his guidance.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Darshan Patel, Assistant professor, CHARUSAT University, Changa, Gujarat, India for his insightful discussions and developing an approach to a problem. Dr. Darshan Patel helped me in my Ph.D. work more or less like a friend which made me quiet fortunate to have him.

I pay my sincere thanks to Dr. A.V.R.L.N. Acharya, Head, Prof. K.S. Rao and Prof. Kiran Kalia, Ex-Heads, BRD School of Biosciences, for allowing me to conduct my work in this department and providing me with all the necessary facilities.

I am thankful to the teachers Prof. Datta Madamwar, Prof. K.C. Patel, Dr. Ujjval Trivedi and Dr. A.S. Reddy for aiding me in my research work and blessings during the course of my research.

I am very much thankful to Dr. Nitin Solanki and Dr. Hitesh Patel for the instrumental and microscopy help required in my research work. I am also thankful to the office staff of our department for issuing the materials needed in my research work.

Working environment makes any task going smoothly and being a research student I am fortunate enough to have brothers in the lab to help me out whenever it was needed. Dr. Pritesh Parmar made the lab environment lively with his songs and jolly nature. I was blessed to have a company of Dr. Bhaumik Dave and Dr, Ankit Sudhir, I always shared thoughts with him whether scientifically or socially at a healthy level, I am really thankful to him for being there.

I ain’t less fortunate to have a colleagues Vishakha Pawar, Anil Prajapati, Monica Noronha, Suresh Mesara and Sunitha Mary, who were always ready to help me. I really enjoyed their company and affection that they have for me.

In my daily work, I have been blessed with a friendly and cheerful group of fellow students. I am thankful to Dr. Purvesh Bharvad, Dr. Pramod Sivan, Dr. Sanjay Karn, Dr. Kunal, Dr. Deval, Honey, Avinash, Sujit, Zeenat, Sanket and Dhruti, Zalak, Nilanjana, Pinal, Jenny, Shivani, Vrutika, Ravi, Rajesh, Neelam, Prachi, Bhum, Joohi, Ajit, Dr. Vimal, Dr. Ravi Patel, Parth, Harshvadan, Anand, Devang, Disha, Pooja and Khusbu.

I always had fun while interacting with dissertation students, so it’s a pleasure to thank Khushboo Raj, Megha Parikh, Nitee Karania, Drashya Sharma, Niriksha Pandya, Viplove Agarwaal, Maitri Patel, Sweedle Dsouza, Anchal Deshwal, Janki Vacchani, Prakash and Vanita. I am thankful for their valuable help and affection.

Last but not the least, my beloved parents, my better half Dipali and family members are always there as a rock support to me. Words are not enough to express my love for my parents. I am thankful to Dipali for being there always with me as a friend. I am very grateful to my Sister and Jijaji for the eternal support, love and encouragement which made me work hard.

Many people, whose names may go unmentioned, have also been instrumental, in the completion of this project. I would like to thank all of them for their support.
