LIST OF FIGURES

TABLES

Table 0.1 Rural and Urban Representation of Sample Villages 40
Table 0.2 Geographical Representation of Sample Villages 41
Table 0.3 Villages & Corresponding Sample for the Interview Schedule 44
Table 0.4 Sample for In-Depth Interviewees: Tribes and Categories 46
Table 0.5 Villages & Corresponding Sample for the Interview Schedule 118
Table 0.6 Number of Scheduled Tribes in Northeast India 119
Table 0.7: Should your Village be Governed according to Customary Law? 156
Table 0.8: Why should Customary Law be practiced in your community? 158
Table 0.9: Why is customary law not relevant for governance in the village? 167
Table 0.10: Do People Approach Police to Resolve Conflicts? 179
Table 0.11: When Do People Approach the Police? 180
Table 0.12: Why do people approach police station or state courts? 182
Table 0.13: Why has Customary Law System weakened in your state? 201
Table 0.14: Why has Customary Law System is Salient in your state? 214
Table 0.15: Why only Customary Law System is Sufficient? 240
Table 0.16: Why do you prefer both Customary and State Law System? 241
Table 0.17: What Changes Should Customary Law Undergo? 251

PIE CHARTS

Pie Chart 5.1: Have Customary Laws Become Weak in the Process of State Formation? (Data from Interview Schedule) 195
Pie Chart 5.2: Have Customary Laws Become Weak in the Process of State Formation? (Data from In-depth Interview) 195
Pie Chart 6.1: Which System is good for Village Administration? (Data from interview schedule) 235
Pie Chart 6.2: Which System is good for Village Administration? (Data from in-depth interviews) 235
Pie Chart 6.3: Should customary laws be codified? (Data from in-depth interviews) 272
STATEMENTS

Statement 3.1: Origin of Customary Law 131
Statement 3.2: Nature of Customary Law 140
Statement 4.1: Relevance of Customary Law 159
Statement 6.1: What do you mean by codification? 273

DIAGRAMS

Diagram 5.1: Representation of Legal System among the Angami 174
Diagram 5.2: Representation of Legal System among the Garo 177