Bibliography

------------, “NACP-III: To Halt and Reverse the HIV/AIDS Epidemic in India,” http://www.nacoonline.org/upload/Publication/IEC%20&%20Mainstreaming/NACP%20III%20-%20To%20Halt%20and%20Reverse%20the%20HIV%20Epidemic%20in%20India.pdf, retrieved on 25.03.08

--------------, (2000), “Comparative analysis: Research studies from India and Uganda:

“Access to Treatment: The Cost of Treating HIV/AIDS in India and Nepal,” http://www.panosouthasia.org

“HIV awareness tops minister list,” The Telegraph, Siliguri, April 8, http://www.darjeelingtimes.com/news/News/India-not-ready-to-legalise-commercial-sex.html, retrieved on 9.4.2008

Acharya,S., (2008),Health and Sexuality Among Youth in Uttarakhand (India),” Man-Development, Vol. 30, No 3, pp71-86

ActionAid, (2006), Positive Voices: Emerging Governance Issues on HIV and AIDS in Asia, Shivam Sundaram, New Delhi

231

Delhi AIDS Control Society., (2005), HIV/AIDS in Delhi: Meeting the Challenges

Deng, R., Li, J., Sringernyuang, L., Zhang, K., (2007), Drug Abuse, HIV/AIDS and Stigmatisation in a Dai Community in Yunnan, China,” Social Science & Medicine, Vol.. 64, No 8, pp 1019-1031

District Statistical Hand Book, Darjeeling 2001

238

241

UNAIDS, (2008), ‘Geneva, Switzerland

243

“Teen Scare,” www.darjeelingtimes.com, retrieved on 07.05.2008