ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis success was directly attributed to the assistance and support from all those individuals involved in these four — years efforts.

So i wish to place on record my sincere gratitude to a number of individuals who have, in some way or other, made it possible for me to undertake this study.

Firstly, i would like to express my deep and heartfelt gratitude to the almighty god for giving me health, wealth, strength and mind to accomplish this venture.

In the first place, i am indebted to the department of economic administration and financial management, (faculty of commerce), university of Rajasthan, which has accepted me for doctorate program and provided me with an excellent opportunity to carry out the present research work. And at the outset i wish to express my heart-felt gratitude to all those people who have facilitated and guided me to undertake and complete this research work, which is one of the first few researches in the subject of assets management in mutual funds in India, at least in India.

Before i embark upon the presentation on this study it is my Proud privilege to express my profound sense of gratitude and Indepthness to my most respectfully and esteemed supervisor DR. LATA AGRWAL, professor, head department of economic administration and financial management , (faculty of commerce), university of Rajasthan. Under whose able guidance this work has been accomplished. I am thankful for his painstaking guidance during this investigation, generous help in carrying out the research work constructive, criticism, valuable suggestions and scholarly, prolific, guidance. For the study.
He is not only developing my skills and efforts in my present thesis but even fostering deeper insight for future commitment in the subject.

It’s not merely an acknowledgement but my earnest gratitude and credit for this research also goes to DR. SOM DEO (Retired) professor, department of economic administration and financial management, university of Rajasthan, who has been also a continuous sources of inspiration for this research and without his considerate guidance, this work could not have been completed, he is not only developing my skills and efforts in my present thesis but even fostering deeper insight for future commitment in the subject.

I express my cordial thanks to DR. N.K. SHARMA, professor, department of economic administration and financial management, university of Rajasthan, for his active guidance and valuable suggestions and sparing time for reviewing my research work from time to time.

I am extremely thankful to DR. RAJEEV UPADHYAYA, professor, department of economic administration and financial management, university of Rajasthan, who have continuously stood by my side not just in terms of guidance for conducting this study, but also in terms of their encouragement. I also thankful to dr. B.L. GUPTA PROFESSOR, department of ABST university of Rajasthan, DR. ANURAG SHARMA professor, department of business administration, university of Rajasthan, for providing me all the necessary facilities for pursuing the present study.

At the very onset i would like to thanks DR. N.D MATHUR professor, and DR. P.K. KOTIA professor, department of economic administration and financial management, university of Rajasthan, for his co-operation in completing this Work.
I am highly indebted to my mother (MRS. RATEN DAVI) who encouraged me to take up this research work. I shall also be failings in my duty. If i don’t (iv) acknowledgements the extreme support of my family member particularly my father (DR. R.K. SHARMA) elder sisters (MRS. ARCHANA SHARMA, MRS. DR. NEERU SHARMA AND MRS. AARTI SHARMA), elder brother (DR. ANIL SHARMA) and babhi (MRS. SARITA SHARMA) without the support of whole this research would never have been completed. Last but not least, i would like to express my gratitude towards all the staff and faculty members of the department of economic administration and financial management, university of Rajasthan, and the research section of the university and other official for providing me this opportunity to undertake research work in this prestigious university. Being a new concept, (Assets management in mutual funds in India (A case study on HDFC mutual fund) still evolving .as the concept gather momentum more issues would come up that may require more in depth analysis. While conducting this research the basis objective of the project study was done to ascertain the asset management company associated with the mutual fund ultimately this would help in understanding the benefits of mutual fund investors.

I record my gratitude to the library staff.
