LIST OF CONTENTS

List of Contents
Page No.

- i-iii
- iv-v
- vi-ix

Chapter 1: Introduction
1.0 Introduction
1.1 Rationale for the Study and its Scope, Research Problem or Questions
1.2 The Nascent Capitalist Class in Russia under the Tsars-Economic and Political Conditions
1.3 The Soviet Period
  A. The New Economic Policy Period-a change in the Bolshevik Policy towards Capitalism
  B. Economic and Political Conditions in the Soviet Union and the External Influences
  C. Attempts to Reform Socialism in USSR
    (i) Shortages and the Shadow Economy
    (ii) Organized Crime and Mafia
1.4 Gorbachev and the Period of Great Change
  A. Restructuring
  B. Attempts at Economic Reforms
1.5 Formation of Seed Capital during the Perestroika Period
  A. Institutions
    (i) Creation of the Cooperatives
    (ii) The Komsomol economy
    (iii) Nomenklatura Capitalism
  B. Methods of Profit Making within USSR
    (i) Conversion of paper credits into cash
    (ii) Preferential Credits and Currency Speculation
    (iii) Property Deals
    (iv) Import-export operations
    (v) Privatization of the State by State before Privatization for People
    (vi) Blat or Connections
1.6 Conclusion

Chapter 2: Theoretical Aspects on Class and Capitalism
37-80
2.0 Introduction
2.1 Social Stratification
  A. On Class
(i) Class as Prestige, Status, Culture or Lifestyles
(ii) Class as Structures of Inequality
(iii) Classes as Actual or Potential Social and Political Actors

B. Social Structure within the Economic Organization of USSR

2.2 The Capitalist System
A. Features of Capitalism and Market Economy
B. Dominant Types of Capitalism
   (i) Anglo-Saxon Market-oriented Type of Capitalism
   (ii) Continental European Type of Capitalism
   (iii) Japanese Model of Capitalism
C. Case for Divergent Models

2.3 Changes in Capitalist Class
2.4 Conclusion

Chapter 3: Rise of the Oligarchs under Yeltsin
3.0 Introduction

3.1 Yeltsin's Alternative to Gorbachevian Reforms
   A. Tug of War between Yeltsin and the Parliament
   B. On the Quick Road to Market Economy
   C. Privatization
      (i) Corporatization
      (ii) Closed Subscription for Insiders
      (iii) Voucher Auctions

3.2 Privileged Privatization-'Loans for Shares'
   A. Consolidation of Financial-industrial Groups (FIGs)

3.3 Methods of Stripping State Assets and Capital during Yeltsin Period
   A. Financial Speculative Schemes
   B. Capital Flight
   C. Use of Offshore Subsidiaries
   D. Transfer-Pricing or Arbitrage
   E. Dilution of Capital
   F. Asset Stripping from State and Foreign Enterprises
   G. The Negative Elements-Mafia and Organized Crime

3.4 Capitalists to the Rescue of President Yeltsin
3.5 Emergence of the Oligarchy
   A. Inside the Corridors of Power
   B. Oligarchs and the Media

3.6 Oligarchs, a Case for 'Ruling Class'
3.7 Realities of Economic Reform and the Concept of 'Capitalist Class' within Russia
3.8 Conclusion

Chapter 4: Putin and the Capitalists
4.0 Introduction
4.1 Factors Weakening the Bargaining Powers of Oligarchs
A. Bankers’-cum-Media War
B. The 1998 Financial Crisis
4.2 Search for an Amicable Prime Minister
   A. President Putin’s Credentials
   B. Putin’s Absolution and Agreement
   C. Reforms undertaken by Putin
      (i) Political Reforms
      (ii) Attempts to Curb Money-laundering
      (iii) Tax Reforms
      (iv) Corporate Governance Reforms
4.3 Russian Capitalists 2000-2004
   A. Challenges to the Executive Leadership from Capitalists
      (i) Gusinsky versus Gazprom
      (ii) Fall of the Kremlin Godfather
      (iii) The Khodorkovsky Affair
   B. Siloviki or the Business Elite
4.4 Putin and the Capitalists in 2004-2008
4.5 Assertion over Media Outlets and Industries
4.6 Conclusion

Chapter 5: Role of Capitalists in the Russian Political System

5.0 Introduction
5.1 Russian Capitalism
5.2 Russian Capitalist Class
   A. Values Orientation, Attitudes and Networks of the Capitalists
5.3 The Capitalist Class within Russian Political System
   A. Representation of Businessmen within Government and Vice-versa
   B. Business Interest Groups within Russia
      (i) Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs (RUIE)
      (ii) Union of Business Associations of Russia (OPORA)
      (iii) Financial-Industrial-Groups
      (iv) The Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Russian Federation
   C. Lobbying Methods
   D. Lobbying under Yeltsin and Putin
5.4 Insertion into the world economy
5.5 Conclusion

Chapter 6: Conclusion

References
List of Tables and Figures

Tables
Table 1.1 Banks in Czarist Russia, 1900-14
Table 1.2 Recruitment of Yeltsin Cohort from the Top Stratum of the Old Nomenklatura
Table 1.3 Time of Entry and Activities of Various Groups or Individuals into the Entrepreneurial Fold.
Table 2.1: Composition of Soviet Population by Broad Groups
Table 3.1: Russian Oil Industry and the Loans-for-Shares Scheme, 1995-7
Table 3.2: List of the Oligarchs and their Holdings in 1996-1999
Table 3.3: Types of Political Elites and the Regime Types They Create.
Table 3.4: Persons Not Previously Part of the Nomenklatura
Table 3.5 Recruitment of Yeltsin Cohort from Branch Sub-elites of the Old Nomenklatura
Table 3.6: World Ranking of Russian Business Tycoons
Table 4.1: Russia's Largest Banks Towards the End of 1997
Table 4.2: Recalculations of Kryshťanovskaya and White Data on Military-Security Representation in the Russian Elite
Table 4.3: 'Siloviki' and 'Liberals' in Government Structures, 2005
Table 4.4: List of Russian Capitalists among the World billionaires, 2001-2004
Table 4.5: Business Membership of Parties by Duma (% of all Businessmen in Duma by Party/Group)
Table 4.6: List of Russian Capitalists among the World billionaires, 2005-2008
Table 5.1: Businesspeople as Heads of Regional Administrations in Russia
Table 5.2: Influencing Legislation (%)
Table 5.3: Methods Used by Successful Lobbyists.
Figures

Figure 2.1: The Organization of the Soviet industry. 49
Figure 2.2: Institutional Forms of Capitalism 75
Figure 2.3: Elaborated Class Typology 79