ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All I thank Almighty God who is the source of success. I owe to Him who gave me strength and courage to strive the goal. Many thanks be to Him who saw me through.

Research work would not have been possible, however, dance and wise counsel of Dr. S.R. Dastane. I am deeply for helping me from the proposal stage to the completion of my personal inconveniences. I extend my sincere love, hospitality and care which energized me during my studies. I am indebted to express my words of appreciation to God may bless him and his family so abundantly.

I am privileged to know, I owe a special debt of gratitude to S.R. Rao (former head of the Department of Economics, ) who kindled my interest in financial institutions. Also my Institute of Politics and Economics (GIPE), National Bank Management (NIBM), National Insurance Academy special way I would like to mention the name of Dr. P.B. Wadia College. In a thank the Principal of the College, Prof. S.B. Tardalkar and me.

I am thankful to the staff and Managers of various Financial Institutions who gave me access to data and information needed for this research work. I am thankful to Ato H/Michael Kumsa, the Managing Director of EIC; Ato Habtesilase Hagos the Vice-President, Marketing and Corporate Planning, Commercial Bank of Ethiopia; Ato Ibrahim Abdulahi, Director of Research Department, National Bank of Ethiopia; Ato Bekele Wolde Abadjifar of NBE; Ato Leikun Berhanu Gemta, General Manager of Awash International Bank, (former Governor of National Bank of Ethiopia) and Ato Berhanu Taye of Development Bank.

I sincerely thank Dr. Eyob Tesfaye, Ato Tura Kebede, Ato Berhanu Batisso and other staff of National Bank of Ethiopia who helped me in one way or the other. And Ato Ambassa Geleto, Ato Muche and other staff of Commercial Bank of Ethiopia; Ato Abiy Worede of Construction and Business Bank; Ato Bezabeh Bekele, Deputy Managing Director of Marketing, Ethiopian Insurance Corporation and his team in statistics section especially W/t Alemwork Kebede and Ato Debela Gemesu; Ato Tewodros Abate and Ato Kifle Gebere of Central Statistical Authority; all the friends at Addis Ababa University especially Dr. Alemayeu Geda and Ato Tenna Dewo; the staff of MEDaC, Macro Department, especially Ato Admassu. All are acknowledged for their support while I was in Addis Ababa for data collection.

I wish to acknowledge the assistance and support that I received from Dr. S. D. Gore of Pune University, Statistics Department, Mr. Upendra Parmar, M.Sc., Statistics, and Ato Nigussie Geletu of Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs, Addis Ababa. Dr. S. D. Gore is always willing to help those who are in need. I sincerely thank him and his family for their kindness and hospitality. Ato Nigussie was my colleague at Addis Ababa University during undergraduate study. Since then he is a source of help to me in many ways. Many thanks are to him.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to His Excellency Desta Erefo, The Ambassador of Ethiopia in India, New Delhi; Ato Yiferadow Getnet First Secretary, Ato Demeke Atnafu, Ato Seyoum and other staff of Ethiopian Embassy. I highly acknowledge the Indian High Commission for having issued me research knowledge the support of the Ministry of Education, Addis Ababa. I give my sincere thanks to the office of Ato Mitiku Barecha for her value for the Seventh Day Adventist Church for her message that aims at the harmonious development of Mental and Spiritual powers. I want to thank various Church, the Ethiopian Union Mission (EUM) and the community of Ethiopian Adventist College (EAC). I thank the name of Ato Taye Woltaji who encouraged me to go on. Also I thank Ato Letta Badhasso, Ato Dube Tusse, Ato Demeke and several others who encouraged me in many ways. Also I thank members of Adventist Church at Spicer Memorial College for their love and care.

I thank my friends in Pune who encouraged me in one way or the other. Geshome Gullo, Kedir Ashime, Isayas Berhanu, Tamerat Zezeud Badada are all acknowledged for their support and for all their love and the sweet fellowship we enjoyed.

I like to express my appreciation to all my brothers, sisters specially I thank my sisters Aster Amado and Meskerem Meski for her continued support in many ways. She took the responsibility of sending important items to me without which this study would not have been completed. I thank very much Dilgassa ene Burka, for all the support they extended towards the completion of this study.
Last but not the least, I thank my mother Shefarash Gabisso, Bizunesh Gabisso (Adde), my father Pr. Amado Gelgelu and my uncle Ato Alemu Kitel. I thank all of them for giving me the best they could so that I could concentrate on my study. I have no words to express my gratitude to them. I thank my God who blessed me with such wonderful parents.

All said but neither individuals nor the institutions with which I was associated are, however, responsible for the contents, interpretations and conclusions of the study: these are all mine alone.

Mr. Desta Amado Gelgelu,
Dept. of Economics,
Pune University.