ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The study involved a collection of data through field survey. Primary data was collected from EDPs participants who attended the programme. I gratefully acknowledge their co-operation in filling the exhaustive questionnaire inspite of their busy schedule, without which this study would not have been completed.

I received a great deal of help from Shri. Yogiraj Deoker, Regional Manger. MCED, Pune not only in the drafting and finalizing the questionnaire but also seeking permission from the MCED head office located in Aurangabad for using organization’s data base. Other staff members of MCED, which includes Mr. Shelke, Mrs. Javalegekar, Mr. Paratkar (Aurangabad) also helped me in providing the list of the candidates. I gratefully acknowledge their support and help in this respect.

Dr. S.G. Bapat, my research guide, was kind enough to guide me for this thesis work inspite of his busy schedule and on going training assignments. He extended all necessary help and was available to me for the guidance and supports whenever it was needed. I express my deep sense of gratitude to him for his regular, encouraging and insightful guidance in my research study.

For writing the chapter on literature review, I received valuable help from the Servants of India Society's Library, Pune. I am very grateful to the authorities for this library for providing me the adequate library facility.

I am also very much grateful to various personalities from different walk of life that remains constant source of inspiration for me and have extended all possible help and cooperation in one way or the other whenever needed. These personalities included Dr. Subhash Bhave, Ex. Director, Prin. Naralkar Institute of Career Development and Research, Pune, Shri. M.D. Adoni, Business Development Consultant, Dr. P.C. Shejwalkar, Director IMDR, Pune, Shri. Vikas Bhagavat, Founder President and Trusty, Ishwarpuram
My heartfelt thanks to Dr. Shalini Sharma, Prof J.K. Lahir and Mrs. Malvika Mukharjee who, offered wholehearted support and helped me in editing the writeup.

Last but not least I express my thanks to Shri. Ketan Hirve, Principal, Hirve's computer and Type writing Institute Pune for having typed out the thesis several time without making complaints.
