ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is with profound gratitude that I express my sincere thanks to the managers of various industrial units in Satpur area for extending extraordinary cooperation and generous help in carrying out my field work. Some managing directors, leading industrialists and a few distinguished scholars gave freely of their valuable time and offered constructive criticism through illuminating discussions. I gratefully express my appreciation for their generosity.

For the expert guidance and inspiring encouragement, I am indebted to Dr. (Mrs.) Hemalata Acharya. It was on account of the interest and concern shown by her at all levels of inquiry that this work has come up in the present form.

I am also thankful to the officers of the office of NIMA and the office of the Director of Industries, Nasik for allowing me to refer to their records.

My thanks are also due to all those who have contributed in one way or the other to the completion of this work.

Finally, I would like to thank the Yashashree Typewriting Center, Nasik for typing this thesis.
