ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To Prof. T.K. Oommen, I owe a great deal; his influence on me, personally and professionally has been profound. For his constructive comments, thoughtful suggestions and constant help for improvements of my thesis and, above all, the stimulation which he continues to provide, I am grateful indeed. Under his guidance my enthusiasm for research was stimulated and I could overcome my limitations and complete this work. I am fortunate to work with him at the formative phase of my career, when his guidance and encouragement are especially influential.

It is a pleasure to acknowledge the assistance of Dr. F. Deo, A.K. Tripathy, A. Badapanda, R.K. Meher, N.K. Sahu, A. Dubey, Bhushan, M. Mallik, S. Ganjoo, Y.
