ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have immense pleasure in expressing my sincere and whole-hearted gratitude to my guide, Dr. Reeta Sonawat, Professor and Head of Department of Human Development, for her continued support, unflinching encouragement, availability and guidance. I have benefitted greatly from her knowledge of research design and statistical analysis. I am forever grateful for her enormous patience, kindness and wisdom. She has been a constant source of inspiration and motivation through this entire journey.

I would like to thank Dr. Sandeep Kelkar who had immense faith in my work and included me as part of Team Equipkids. The seed of Emotional Intelligence sown in 2006, when we started Equipkids- Institute for Training and Research in Emotional Intelligence, has taken a beautiful form now.

I would be remiss not to thank Dr. Joshua Freedman of Six Seconds Emotional Intelligence Organisation for his encouragement and mentoring. During the course of the Doctorate programme, I was able to complete two certifications in EI (EQC and EQE) through Six Seconds. I truly admire his noble goal of spreading EI around the world to benefit people and organisations.

Sincere thanks to Dr. Ravikala Kamath and Dr. Deepa Sharma who have in many ways been a pillar of support and have provided timely guidance.

I would like to thank Mr. Ajay Saraf for helping me with the statistical analysis. His patience to sort out my phobia with numbers and statistics is commendable.

I am indebted to Preeti Somaiya, Pinky Jain, Dimple Jain, Sudha Iyer, Sangeeta Shirname, Honey Thakkar, Sunetra Banerjee and Manjula Chaturvedi for readily co-ordinating and reaching out to the children and arranging the infrastructure for my study. In addition, I would like to thank all the children from the various groups (Western Mumbai, Central Mumbai and Navi Mumbai) for wholeheartedly participating in my study. They are indeed the brand ambassadors for the supportive programme to enhance emotional intelligence.

I am also thankful for the time, effort, support and co-operation of the wonderful team of Little Steps Nursery and Day care Centre. Their excellent team work gave me the required time to focus on my studies. I express my sincere gratitude to Girija Pillay, for managing Little Steps and also understanding and respecting my decision to study.

A special thanks to Alka Deshpande, a very dear friend, who extended her creative talent, to make some of the teaching aids for the supportive programme. A big thank you from the bottom of my heart to Shobha Bharat and Chhaya Bhise who have helped me sail through the highs and lows of this journey.

I wish to extend my gratitude to Dr. Chandrashekhar Gawli, Ms. Ruchita, Ms. Amarja and Ms. Radhika of the Department of Human Development for their support.

I wish to place my heartfelt gratitude to Smt. Neelam Malik and Shri. Bharat Malik (Director and Chairman, AryaGlobal) for having faith in me and entrusting the responsibility of heading the AryaGlobal Research and Training Institute and Little Aryans Preschools. They gave me the required time and space to work on my thesis.

My mother (Smt. Seetha Soundararajan) and mother-in-law (Smt. Devaki Padmanabhan) along with the rest of my family and friends: thanks for cheering me on and believing that I could successfully complete the Doctoral studies.

I would like to thank my caring and understanding husband Srikanth, for his ever-ready assistance extended throughout the study. He stood by me through the ups and downs, without judgement. He allowed me to do what I needed to do and work at my own pace, understanding my need to work for long hours, always appreciating the very humble food that was served at times. He has been my saviour when the system crashed losing all the chapters completed and stood beside me and retrieved it all. He really understood and respected my Nirvaana phase and helped me accomplish my goals.

Lastly, a big thank you to my darling twins Kriti and Kaustubh, who have been my loving and understanding cheer leaders. Whenever my studies and data collection took me away from all, especially the weekends, their love and hugs brought back the smile on my face. Please accept my sincere gratitude for brightening up my life, and being a part of the EQ journey.

I feel happy and blessed with the Almighty’s grace on my family and me.
