ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I bow my head before “the Almighty” for bestowing his blessings upon me. Without his grace, I would not have been able to accomplish this research work.

I owe my deep gratitude to my honourable guide Dr. Pushpinder Kaur, Assistant Professor, Department of Distance Education, Punjabi University, Patiala who encouraged me to accomplish the task. Her consistent advice, supervision and emotional support helped me a lot.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. Kulwinder Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Education and Community Service, Punjabi University, Patiala for extending his emotional and moral support to me throughout the course of my research. His own thesis served as a model for me. I am highly grateful to him for his consistent encouragement, guidance, suggestions, motivation and unsolicited help which are invaluable and can’t be expressed in words.

I am grateful to Dr. Kirandeep Kaur, Dean and Head, Department of Education and Community Service, Punjabi University, Patiala for her guidance and support. I am also thankful to the faculty members of the department Dr. Meenakshi Sharma, Dr. Paramjeet Kaur Sandhu, Dr. Jasraj Kaur, Dr. S.K. Bawa and Dr. Jagpreet Kaur for all their expert comments, advice and support.

I express my special thanks to Mr. Prabh Dayal, Madam Rupinder Kaur for their unflinching support. My heartfelt and sincere thanks to the heads, teachers and students of various schools in which tools were administered to collect data for the study.

In the course of time, I received generous help from several libraries. I am thankful to the library staff of Punjabi University, Patiala, Panjab University, Chandigarh, Kurukshetra University Kurukshetra, Jawaharlal Nehru University, ICSSR, NUEPA, NCERT, New Delhi. My special thanks to Ms. Parminder Kaur, Head, Librarian, Jasdev Singh Sandhu College of Education, Kauli, Patiala who had been very helpful throughout the research work.

I am also grateful to my life companion Dr. Anup Thakur, for his patience, love and untiring attitude during the preparation of this thesis. Without his motivation and support, this work would not have been possible. My deep sense of gratitude to my son Kavin for his sacrifice as personal attention to him was not possible at times.

No appreciable words could be traced to pay my thanks and regards to my father and mother Shri B.S. Thakur, Smt. Kanta Thakur for their sacrifice, patience and moral support.

I have been lucky to have the most affectionate and progressive parents. My parents Shri Nek Ram Thakur and Smt. Bimla Thakur supported a lot during my data collection and cementing prepositions in the present investigation.

I am always indebted to my one more family, aunty Smt. Daljeet Kaur, uncle S. Darshan Singh, Depinder (Laddi), Rinku and Jaspreet for the unconditional love and support at every step.

It gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge in so formal manner the love, support and good wishes extended to me by my sisters Parul, Itti, Savita, Vinita and brothers Ankit, Dr. Vishal, brother-in-law Shri Anil Kumar and their kids – Shagun, Shubham, Kavya and Kavish. I extend my hearty thanks to them for withstanding by me during this phase of my life.

It is very difficult to formally say thanks to my friends; words are not enough to convey the deep love and affection for them. Pallavi, Shalu, Manjinder, Kamal and colleagues from my college thanks for helping and encouraging me.

I express my special thanks to the management of Jasdev Singh Sandhu College of Education, Kauli, Patiala, Mr. Arpit Garg, Director, Dr. R.P.K. Sidhu, Principal and staff for their unflinching support and help throughout the journey of my research.

I extend my sincere thanks to S. Manjit Singh Sidhu (M.G. Cyber Café, Near Deep Hospital, Opp. Punjabi University, Patiala) for meticulous, efficient typing of this manuscript.

In the end, I am thankful to all those who may not have been mentioned but are not forgotten.

Meena Thakur