ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am indebted to the Centre for the Study of Regional Development and its Chairperson/s for giving me the opportunity to do my Ph.D. and for providing me the necessary academic, technical and administrative support.

My deep gratitude goes to my supervisor, Professor Sudesh Nangia for her constant help, guidance and valuable suggestions. She has been, to me, a constant source of inspiration and strength during my long stay in the centre as a student of M.A., M.Phil. and Ph.D. I realised the importance of sincerity, hard work and honesty in academic life under her able supervision.

I derived immense inspiration for higher education from the sayings of Shri. Ramakrishna, narrated in ‘Condensed Gospel of Shri. Ramakrishna’, and Swami Vivekananda given in ‘Life and Legacy’. Their teachings gave me moral and spiritual stability which I desperately needed during the course of my research work. I am deeply indebted to Swami Gokulananda ji, the Secretary, Ramakrishna Mission, for giving me access to the books from the mission’s library and also showing his genuine concern for my research work.

I express my gratitude to Prof. M.K. Premi, Prof. Aslam Mahmood, Prof. G.K. Chadha and Prof. M.D. Vemuri for assisting me in logit analysis. My special thanks are to Dr. Anuradha Banerjee for going through parts of the final draft of my manuscript and giving suitable suggestions. I warmly acknowledge Mr. Ajay Kumar Shastri and Mr. Umesh Kumar, the Yoga teachers of JNU, who gave me both moral and academic support during the final stage of my work.
