ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis has been possible due to the constant support given by Dr. Victor Louis Anthuvan from the Loyola Institute of Business Administration who guided the critical stages of the project.

Additional support was provided by Dr. Srinivasa Kumar, Dr. Yamuna Krishna, Dr. Smriti Verma and Dr. Ilavazhan from the Hindustan Institute of Technology and Science.

The members of the professional accounting institutes and other professional accountants were of immense help in giving a patient hearing and helping with the survey.
