Introduction 1-3

Chapter I. Social and Economic Conditions of Indian Muslims in the Eighteenth Century 4-22
  1) Social Condition
  2) Economic Condition

Chapter II. Biographical Accounts of Shah Waliullah 23-39
  1) Ancestors of Shah Waliullah
  2) Early Life and Education
  3) Journey to Hijaz
  4) Teaching Life
  5) Wives and Children

Chapter III. Works of Shah Waliullah 40-63
  1. Main Works
     a) Hujjatullah al-Balighah
     b) Al-Budur Al-Bazigha
     c) Izalalat al-Khafa an Khilafat al-Khulafa
     d) Fath al-Rahman fi Tarjamat al-Quran
     e) Al-Fauz al-Kabir fi Usul al-Tafsir
  2. Letters of Shah Waliullah

Chapter IV. Social Contribution of Shah Waliullah 64-91
  1) The first stage
  2) The second Stage
  3) The Third Stage (Nationalism)
  4) The fourth stage (Internationalism)

Chapter V. Economic Contribution of Shah Waliullah 92-110
  1) Household Management
  2) Classification of Human Wants
  3) Cooperation
  4) Division of Labor
5) Opportunity Cost
6) Right to Property
7) The Place of Economic Activities in an Islamic Framework
8) Business Ethics
9) The use of Money
10) Interest
11) Balanced Growth
12) Public Finance
13) Public Revenue
14) Zakat
15) Public Expenditure
16) Concern for the Poor

Chapter VI. Impact of Socio-Economic thoughts on the society  111-128

Conclusion  129-136

Bibliography  137-144