Acknowledgement

The path of success is not straight but riddled with temptations impediments and pitfalls all along. All these difficulties make us realize the importance of success humbly. I feel short of words to express my deep sense of gratitude to ‘Almighty’ who lent a new edge and much needed direction to my studies and it is just due to His blessings that I have been able to make it possible with vigour and determination.

As no work of large magnitude can be completed without the help and support of different people, thus in the completion of present study, I have taken the help of a number of people and have incurred a variety of intellectual debts. I wish to acknowledge the help and support of all these people.

I convey my cordial gratefulness and gratitude to my learned supervisor Dr. Bimaldeep Singh, Assistant Professor, Department of Law, GNDU, Amritsar, without his help and keen supervision, this study would not have seen the light of this day. He, therefore, deserves my heartiest thanks.

I acknowledge my grateful thanks to Dr. Kuljit Kaur, Professor, Department of Law, GNDU, Amritsar, for her magnificent assistance and worthy support. I owe my sincere regards to Dr. Viney Kapoor, head of the department, for her invaluable support and encouragement during the study.

I consider it my privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Kunwar Vijay Pratap Singh, IPS, firstly, for suggesting such significant province for the study that is required to bring into the light and secondly, for his irreplaceable guidance and immeasurable moral support throughout the study. Thanks sir for believing in me and standing by me over the years. I am deeply beholden to Mr. Roop Kumar, AIG, Punjab jails, Chandigarh, for his help, co operation and support during the study.

I am delighted to express my thanks to my friend Mr. Vivek Salathia, advocate Punjab & Haryana High Courts for aiding me in preparing the questionnaire for the present study; advocate Ashwani Sharma, advocate Randhir Sharma, advocate Gurpreet Majithia for their kind help and support in collecting the data and information from the selected District courts. I convey my appreciation to my friends advocate Sukhdev Singh and Jaspreet Kaur for their unconditional support and assistance in accomplishing the arduous task of data analysis, accomplishing questionnaires, their valuable comments, corrections and suggestions. Their abound love and collaboration shall be remembered forever.

I am extremely thankful to the allied judicial officers, the prosecutors, the lawyers and the police officers for their essential assistance, interest, and participation in the research work. I appreciate the co-operation and assistance of the staff of Amritsar, Gurdaspur, Jalandhar and Kapurthala district courts and the concerned jails’ authorities and the staff.

My sincere thanks are due to other faculty of Law department, Non-Teaching Staff, Library Staff and the Department of Law, Amritsar, for extending full co-operation throughout the period of my research work.

My family made immense sacrifices during the time I was busy in completion of my research. I consider it my privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude to my father late Shri K.K. Mahajan who has been a moving spirit behind this onerous task. I bow my head to my reverend mother Smt. Kamlesh Mahajan, for her kind support in data analysis, her unceasing strength & immeasurable blessings. I owe an insuppressible debt to my brother, bhabhi and sister for their selfless but untold sacrifices for my better and bright future.

My heartfelt thanks & sincere regards are due to my husband, Mr. Rahul Mahajan, for believing in me and standing by me infallibly. My greatest thanks to our daughter Leana Mahajan for her innocent smiles given through my tiredness and give ups during the study. Thanks you both for your ungrudging love, compromises, patience and support. I am also thankful to all those who directly or indirectly contributed to the completion of the present research.

May God Bless you all abundantly!
