ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to acknowledge my indebtedness to Dr. K. Saratchandran, Former Head and Professor of the Department of Philosophy, University of Kerala, for his constant encouragement and guidance. His periodical scrutiny and valuable suggestions did help me greatly in the completion of the thesis.

My thanks are due to Dr. Nesy, Head and Professor of the Department of Philosophy, University of Kerala, for her valuable advice and motherly affection. I acknowledge sincere gratitude to Professor V. K. Moosath, an eminent scholar in English, for his immense help. I also acknowledge the service of Madam Beena and the Late Librarian, Mr. Thankachen. I am also grateful to the non-teaching staff of the Department of Philosophy. My sincere thanks are due also to the Mar Thoma Seminary, Kottayam.

In this context, I convey my deep sense of indebtedness to my father, Sri. Thomas Stephen, and my mother, Smt. Santhamma
Stephen, who helped me in this venture by their inspiring words and their kindly advice. I place on record the affectionate encouragement given by my parents-in-law, and also to my aunty. I am extremely happy to acknowledge with thanks, the constant co-operation and patience shown by my husband Ajo Mathew and my dear daughter Atheena V Mathew. I owe much to my brother and sister for their inspiration and encouragement in this work.

I am beholden to my research colleagues and others of the department whose encouragement and suggestions on various occasions proved immensely helpful in my work. In fine, I thank Horizon Computers for their untiring efforts and patient endeavour in putting the thesis in the final form.

Leena V. Stephen
