I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my advisor Dr. Satish K. Gupta, whose constant guidance, encouragement and motivation has helped me to complete this work successfully. He has been instrumental in inculcating confidence and has taught me to be more disciplined and careful in my scientific approach. I wish to thank Dr. Sandip K. Basu, Director NII, for his kind help and encouragement. I also thank my Doctoral Committee members, Dr. Subrata Sinha, Dr. Amulya K. Panda, Dr. Anil Suri and Dr. Subeer Majumdar for their valuable suggestions.

I especially thank Mr. Akhilesh K. Aggarwal for his help in the academic matters. The help provided by the staff of the Primate Research Centre, especially Mr. Rajesh is duly acknowledged. Without him, I would not have been able to complete my monkey experiments. Sh. Babulal and Sh. Satish Sharma are thanked for helping in bringing out this thesis. Sh. Gopal Basnotra is also thanked for his help.

I wish to acknowledge the help rendered by Dr. Rajeev Bhatt and Prasanna in carrying out the DSC experiments.

Working in this lab has been a wonderful experience, which made me learn a lot, both in the professional as well as the non-professional sides. I thank my labmates Abhishek, Archana, Anuraag, Chhabi, Deepika, Neela, Neelu, Sanchita, Sangeeta, Senthil, Sonika and Suraj for their help and making my stay in the lab a memorable experience. Rajat and Raghav are thanked for their technical help.

Time spent in RSH has been a memorable experience. It was a "home away from home" and I would like to thank all the people there who have made all those moments "cherishable". I would like to especially remember Vicky, Balá, Sammy and Senthil.

I am obliged to the National Institute of Immunology and Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, Government of India, in providing me a fellowship during the course of this investigation.

Last but not the least, I am most indebted to my beloved parents for their constant support and blessings. I remember God for making me stand through the difficult times when I had almost given up. I would also like to remember the "unforgettable" of my life, Sukhi, Raman, Pankaj, Kuku and Bejoy.
