Or

Om, we meditate on the Radiant One, that our minds may be stimulated

In thinking about and writing this thesis, I have received advice and assistance from a number of people, all of whom I gratefully thank. It is good to have an end to journey towards, but it is the journey that matters in the end, I want to thank all for their valued support during this journey, guiding me from almost to utmost. I am deeply indebted to my research guide and supervisor, Dr. Bhaswat S. Chakraborty, Chairman - R & D Core committee & Sr. Vice-president Cadila Pharmaceuticals Limited, Ahmedabad for his invaluable guidance. I have benefited tremendously from his intellectual stimulation, advice and support, especially during the period when I left the organization and started working with the government. I am particularly grateful to my supervisor, for his critical comments, guidance and blessings with spiritual words that made my life balanced always and also making a vision becomes reality.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude towards Late. I.A. Modi, Dr. Rajiv I. Modi, Chairman and Managing Director and Col. Vijay Sharma, Human Resources Department of Cadila Pharmaceutical Pvt. Ltd, Dholka, Ahmedabad for approving the research project and providing all necessary resources and facilities.

I thank my RPC members, Prof. C.K Desai, Dept. of Pharmacology, B. J. Medical College, Ahmedabad and Prof. G.B Shah, Professor & Principal K.B. Institute of Pharmaceutical Education & Research, Gandhinagar for their helpful suggestions and comments during my research progress report presentations.

Mere words are not enough to express my deepest thanks to Prof. Manjunath Ghate, Dean, Doctoral Studies, Nirma University and Dean, Faculty of Pharmacy, Nirma University, Dr. A.S. Patel, Deputy Registrar (Examinations & Ph.D.), Nirma University, G. Ramachandran Nair, Executive Registrar of Nirma University, Ahmedabad and Dr. Jigna Shah Prof & HOD, Department of pharmacology, Institute of pharmacy, Nirma University, Ahmedabad for providing resources and facilities required for completion of research work.

I found myself lucky to be part of Nirma University Ahmedabad and Cadila Pharmaceuticals Ltd., Ahmedabad and take an opportunity to thank all the staff members and all the employees associated with both the organizations.
I will also always be grateful for the friendship and the intellectual buoyant provided by Dr. Sharwan Singhal and Dr. Somanath Sakore, my course mates on the PhD programme and colleagues at Cadila Pharmaceuticals Limited, Ahmedabad, as well as unending support of team members Dr. Vikas, Dr. Alit, Mr. Umang, Mr. Darshan and friends Mr. Rohit and Mr. Pushpraj.

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks to Sri R. N. Singh, Licensing Authority working with me, who always encouraged me and used to tell me always that you are not born for an ordinary work what we are doing here, continue your research work and contribute to the society.

I must acknowledge my profound gratitude to my beloved wife Kusum, who not only provided me with strong support and encouragement, but also compromised her valuable time during the entire thesis writing period. To my beloved son Advik, I would like to express my thanks for being such cute pie and inspiring me up with his lovely smile and touch.

On a personal note, special thanks to my family members I must thank my Parents, Elder Sister Mrs. Ekta, Jija jee Mr. Bhupendra, Brother Dr. Jay, Bhabhi Mrs. Anjali and Brother in law Mr. Ashutosh for his support and encouragement. Your prayer for me was what sustained me so far. Thanking my niece and nephew Prerna, Shanu and Akshansh for always making moments lovely and lighter in our family.

Above all I pay reverence to the supreme ubiquitous, omniscient, omnipotent; “The Almighty God” for his benevolence bestowed upon me and blessed me with the strength to accomplish this work.
