ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I must express my deepfelt gratitude to my guide Dr. (Mrs) S.L. Kudchedkar for her unstinting help and impeccable guidance in the preparation of the thesis. Being a perfectionist, she wanted things to be very accurate and precise and in this she would not compromise. I often ran into depression and pessimism without getting sufficient guidelines from reference books and then it was Dr. Kudchedkar who solved the problem and instilled confidence in me. I am really very much indebted to her for her kind help and guidance.

I must express my thanks to the Vice Chancellor and Registrar as also the Executive Council of the S.R.D.T. University for permitting me to do the research as an external candidate. The librarians, their assistants and also the clerks deserve a word of praise for their kind help and cooperation.

I owe warm gratitude to Shri. G.K. Dave, Director, Navasarjan Academy of Integral Education (Dakshina Vidyalaya), Nargol for lending me hundreds of books from the school library. Subsequently he helped me buy some of the books at a concessional rate.

This thesis was typed with remarkable excellence and accuracy by Shri B.G. Ubhare. I express my sincere thanks to him.
The graphs were drawn by Shri B.M. Lokhande very neatly and accurately for which I am grateful to him.

The students of Dakshina Vidyalaya, Nargol, Sanjeevan Vidyalaya, Panchgani and Navasarjan Vidyalaya, Bhilad rendered their cooperation in the reading programme experiment. Some of their parents also took interest in it. But for their willing participation, the reading programme experiment would not have been successful. I am in debt to all of them.

The Librarian of the American Library, Bombay gave me some useful pamphlets about children's literature in general for which I express my sincere thanks.

I should express my special thanks to the various authors, publishers and illustrators whom I have not met but whose books inspired me to undertake the research programme.

A special mention must be made about the authors Charlotte S. Huck and Doris Y. Kuhn, authors of Children's Literature in the Elementary School. I gained a lot of information and guidelines from this particular book for which my thanks are due to the authors.

Last but not the least, my humble thanks are due to my uncle Shri M.V. Ganesh who gave me a lot of encouragement and moral support to carry out and complete the research.
