ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my heartfelt thanks to the Department of Library Science, University of Calcutta, for permitting me to conduct this research under its aegis.

I owe my sincere gratitude to my respected teacher, Dr. Arjun Dasgupta, Head, Department of Library Science, University of Calcutta, not merely for his close supervision and valuable comments, but also for the cheerful manner and patient kindness with which he guided me throughout the entire preparation of this work.

I give my cordial thanks to Dr. Amiya Kumar Biswas, Reader, R.K. Mission Boys' Home, Brahmananda P.G.B.T. College, Rahara whose suggestions and criticisms have been of great help for my work.

I very much appreciate the assistance and cooperation given to me by the librarians and other members of the staff of the several libraries in West Bengal. I specially acknowledge my indebtedness to:

The National Library, Calcutta
The West Bengal State Archives, Calcutta
I derived immense benefit from my interviews with
Dr. T.K. Mitra, Reader, Department of Library Science, Calcutta University; Sri P.N. Mukhopadhyay, Head, Department of Library and Information Science, Rabindra Bharati University; Sri Salil Chandra Khan, Lecturer, Rabindra Bharati University; Dr. Barun Kumar Mukherjee, Guest Lecturer, Rabindra Bharati University; Dr. Anil Pal, Assistant Librarian, Rabindra Bharati University; Sri R.K. Saha, Principal, R.K. Mission Boys’ Home P.G.B.T. College, Rahara; Sri Pradip Ganguli, Lecturer, R.K. Mission Vivekananda Centenary College, Rahara; Dr. Chittaranjan Patra, Cataloguer, Indian Museum.
I give my cordial thanks to Sri Aswini Kumar Pasari, Lecturer, R.K. Mission Boys' Home, P.T.T.I. for his helpful suggestion in connection with the statistical aspect of this study.

I am grateful to those librarians of the smallest public libraries in West Bengal, the vast majority, who have supplied documents and opinions during my visit to their libraries. Their friendship and hospitality have been characteristic of a profession which transcends boundaries, race, politics and religion, and which is united in a common purpose.

Last but not least, is my acknowledgement to Sri Utpal Das for helping me in typing out this thesis within a short time.
